

For a Farm to work well objects need to be in their proper place. Using your memory, help the farm family organize their room so it is easier to do their chores. Cut the objects out of the first page and paste them where they belong on the second page.

