RED WINE
RATTLESNAKE HILLS

IN CARRYING ON THE TRADITIONS that Bill Powers had pioneered in growing some of the finest fruit in the Columbia Valley for over 30 years, Powers Winery has continued to lead the industry in low-impact farming practices while cultivating strong partnerships with other top vineyard sites in the Valley. Powers wines are creatively blended to showcase the amazing diversity, quality, and value of wine from the Columbia Valley. As a symbol of Bill's indelible mark on Washington State viticulture, you will find his fingerprint and silhouette on every bottle.
