Women with Disabilities Australia

Your right to make choices
We are Women with Disabilities Australia.

We will write WWDA when we talk about us.

This book is about choices.

We wrote this book for women and girls with disability. Read more about disability in our book New Words.
What is a Choice?

A choice is when you make your mind up about some thing.

Like

- what to eat

and

- what to wear

- where to live.
Some people think women with disability can not make choices about things.

Like

- about our money

- about our health

- who to live with.
Rights

Women and girls with disability can make our own choices.

You have a right to make your own choices.

Some women and girls with disability may need help to make choices.

You have a right to get any help you need.
The Australian Government must

- support women with disability to make their own choices
- give women and girls with disability information they can understand
- follow the UN Convention on the Rights of Peoples with Disabilities.
Thank you
