

UNITED ARAB EMIRATES

The UAE has shot to stardom as one of the world's most sought-after travel destinations in a short space of time, led of course by Dubai, offering guaranteed sunshine, excellent hotels, fine beaches, a dash of culture and the lure of desert adventure.

THE LUXURY TRAVELLER

Zaya Nurai Private Island Abu Dhabi

With just 32 private villas to choose from, guests can expect a high level of personal service and privacy at this luxury Abu Dhabi resort. Yet should they wish, they can hop on a boat and be in bustling Downtown Dubai in less than an hour. Not that you'll want to leave the island once you've arrived, what with its varied selection of restaurants, first-class spa, white sand beaches and numerous on-island experiences... why would you need to?

Those travelling with children will be pleased to uncover 'Petit Z': where games, activities and even food and drink are catered personally to your little one's likes and dislikes. While they're enjoying themselves, grown-ups can chill at the heavenly Zaya Spa, or if a more active pursuit is on the cards there is the 5* PADI dive centre and many watersports activities.

World class dining

Dining offers plenty to tempt you, but an absolute 'must' during your stay is the brunch at Frangipani. Meanwhile accommodations are super-sophisticated with their floor-to-ceiling windows bringing in plenty of natural light and their trendy interiors creating a serene environment to simply kick back and relax. A sensory delight

Park Hyatt Abu Dhabi Hotel and Villas Abu Dhabi

Step into an exclusive sanctuary of contemporary luxury and Arabian flair located alongside a beautiful stretch of beach on Saadiyat Island. With a varied selection of rooms, suites and private villas it's a wonderful choice for families; while grown-ups enjoy some down time, the little ones will love Camp Hyatt, which educates and entertains with adventures focussed on history, culture and the surrounding environment.

Into the wild

The whole family will love a wildlife walk on the protected Saadiyat Island, learning about the rich flora and fauna while spotting a wide variety of shells and birds along the water's edge. Dolphins are regular visitors here too and the best way to spot them is on an Eco Boat Tour.

One&Only The Palm Dubai

Crowning Dubai's sandy archipelago is an elegant retreat sought by the world's most discerning travellers – One&Only The Palm. Pristine sands lapped by azure waters inspire deep calm, while the glittering cityscape beckons. Here, in Dubai's most intimate beachfront resort, amid lush terraced gardens every desire is anticipated and every expectation exceeded with the renowned warmth of traditional Arabian hospitality.

Seek cool serenity in villa enclaves of modern Arabesque design crafted with Moorish and Andalusian details, and complete with dedicated butler. Linger on oversized daybeds, book in hand, as your gaze sweeps sand, sea and skyline. Step from secluded patio to powder beach, via cascading palm-lined terraces. Or take a beautifully designed beachfront villa with private pool and endless views.

A sensory delight

Every culinary experience tells a tale, unfolding in dramatic spaces flooded with natural light. The three Michelin-starred French cuisine of Yannick Alléno at STAY delights the most sophisticated palate, while ZEST showcases a rare fusion of exotic flavours. As the sun sets, finish your evening with cocktails at 101 Dining Lounge and Marina before the majesty of the Dubai skyline.

Jumeirah Dar Al Masyaf Dubai

A truly authentic Arabian hideaway, Jumeirah Dar Al Masyaf offers complete serenity with its traditional summer houses, tranquil gardens and scenic waterways. Take a magical journey through Madinat Jumeirah on a traditional abra, relax on the private beach or indulge in a personalised spa experience before exploring the complex that features a plethora of shops, restaurants and bars.

Cooking up a storm

Renowned for its bustling atmosphere, the Friday Brunch at Jumeirah Al Qasr promises a day of sumptuous delicacies from three different restaurants. Guests can savour a delectable array of options at the live cooking stations – from freshly barbecued Wagyu burgers to delicious desserts and an assortment of beverages.
