

Attestation of ACBN Bylaws and Policies and Procedures

As the American Clinical Board of Nutrition continues its desire to be accredited, all certifiants who wish to remain certified with the ACBN must read and sign this attestation. Signing this form means that you have read, agree and will abide by the Bylaws and Policies & Procedures of the ACBN.

I have read the ACBN Bylaws and the Policies & Procedures. My signature attests my agreement to abide by those Bylaws, Policies and Procedures.

Signed: _____

Printed Name _____

Date Signed: _____

If you have not received a copy of the Bylaws and Policies and Procedures, they may be downloaded from the ACBN website: acbn.org. or by calling ACBN headquarters on this letterhead.

Failure to sign this form and return it within 30 days will alert the ACBN that you are not willing to abide to the accreditation standards encompassed in the Bylaws and Policies and Procedures. If you are not willing to attest agreement you will be removed as a certifiant with the ACBN. Once decertified and considered inactive, a diplomate may no longer use the name Diplomate or Board certified in nutrition with the ACBN or use the name in any way except on a curriculum vitae.
