S: I'll check back in 6 months

Hi {Lead's First Name}.

I've reached out a few times to see if it makes sense to connect about your insurance needs. Since I haven't heard back, I'll assume the timing isn't right.

I'll check back in 6 months to see if that's a better time for you. If you happen to get your renewal before I reach back out please think of me, simply shoot me a quick email if the price seems different or you just have questions.

I'm here to help even if you never buy a policy from me.

Thank you,

{Agent Name}
