

SEVEN DIRECTIONS TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE THEMES & PROJECTS
Programs & Services	Data Infrastructure & Systems	Strategic Planning
Using the Care coordination framework of Relationships, Capacity Development, Indigenous Centered Praxis
Support and evaluate quality improvement activities	Collecting data on community needs for opioid programs - finding the right fit for the program	Selecting a model of Evidence Based Programming for your Community (harm reduction, peer support)
Build communications competencies through training & planning	Evaluating current programs or measures for value in the community	Developing a dashboard - looking at indicators for quality control for public health programs
Developing materials that are a cultural fit for community	Assist in building data infrastructure	Develop target indicators to ensure programs are meeting strategic objectives
Adapting Evidence Based Programming for your Community (harm reduction, peer support)	Assist in developing outcomes indicators and data collection plans	Readiness assessment for creating opioid specific programs
Provide evaluation support (designing needs assessments, developing logic models and evaluation plans)	Assess existing data and service needs	Facilitate strategic planning processes
Develop and share culturally appropriate resources and tools for documenting cultural-based promising practices of tribal opioid overdose and OUD prevention	Develop data collection, analysis and evaluation tools	Plan and implement Community Health Assessment
Develop organizational profile with service descriptions	Develop data sharing agreements across multiple services and sectors providing care coordination	Support on finding and accessing funding opportunities
Strengthening workforces development capacities	Effectively disseminate outputs	