

Privacy Policy

Children's Science Center gathers certain information about our users, and the following explains the terms and conditions about how we acquire and use that information.

Among the information we gather are your name, street and e-mail addresses, billing information, click-through activity, and other personal information you may provide on our Web site. This policy may change from time to time, so please check back periodically.

Children's Science Center e-Newsletter

We offer a free electronic newsletter to users who voluntarily subscribe for this service. Children's Science Center gathers the e-mail addresses of those who register for the newsletter, and the information is used solely for the purpose of communications between Children's Science Center and you. Users may remove themselves from this mailing list by following the link provided in every newsletter that points users to the subscription management page. Children's Science Center does not sell, rent, or otherwise exploit in any way the e-mail addresses of newsletter subscribers and recipients.

E-mails sent to members

Children's Science Center offers memberships. To register for membership, users will fill out forms requesting information, including e-mail addresses. Periodically, Children's Science Center will send information regarding membership renewals, benefits, public events, and important museum news or information. Users may remove themselves from this mailing list by following the instructions on every message. Children's Science Center does not sell, rent, or otherwise exploit in any way the e-mail addresses of newsletter subscribers and recipients

Traffic Logs

Children's Science Center tracks user traffic patterns throughout the site. However, we do not correlate this information with data about individual users. Children's Science Center reviews overall usage statistics according to a user's domain name, browser type, and MIME (data) type by reading this information from the browser string (information contained in every user's browser).

Children's Science Center does not use cookies to track user traffic patterns.

Children

Children's Science Center follows the Federal Children's Online Privacy Protection Act of 1998, and we will never knowingly request personal information from anyone under the age of 13 without requesting parental consent.

Revisions

Please note that Children’s Science Center may revise its privacy policy at any time. Such revisions may arise in response to changes in the law, policy, our site, or other factors. We encourage you to periodically visit this page to review our most current policy.

Contact

If you have any further questions or concerns about Children’s Science Center privacy policies and use of personal information, please send them to our Executive Director.
