Hollywood Hotel: A Luxurious Getaway at an Awesome Price

When taking a trip to Southern California, whether it is a quick couple's getaway or a family vacation, Hollywood Hotel is the best choice. It offers excellent food, accessibility to sights, as well as packages that include visits to tourist spots and shows about town.

Hollywood Hotel can also be a welcome refuge after a day of walking under the scorching heat of the sun—an oasis for people who want just to kick back and relax. But, are these enough to make one book a stay in Hollywood Hotel? Read on to see why this place is worth exploring!

HISTORY

Hollywood Hotel was established in 1903 to welcome stars from silent movies. History tells Rudolph Valentino lived, married and honeymooned at this exact location. Since its relocation in 1964, its walls continue to witness the arrival of future comedy stars through its Comedy Club, considered as an entertainment center in West Hollywood.

It has served as a backdrop to a lot of movies and television shows, as well as commercials over the years. For anyone who's interested in old Hollywood or in seeing where comics like Kristen Wiig or John Krasinski got their start, this is the hotel to be.

LOCATION, LOCATION, LOCATION

The hotel is known for its accessibility to sights. Located conveniently on Vermont Street, Hollywood Hotel is within walking distance from renowned landmarks such as the Hollywood Walk of Fame, Grauman's Chinese Theater, and the famed Melrose Avenue. Walk a little further, and the avid shopper will hit the infamous Rodeo Drive and Farmer's Market. Moreover, The Grove, which features a mix of upscale and retail shops and is a favorite celebrity hangout, is mere minutes away.

There's also the subway, which will take you to Los Angeles Zoo, Greek Theater, the Hollywood sign, and Griffith Park Observatory. If you're interested in hiking, the hotel is close by The Mount Hollywood Trail, The Canyon Boulevard Trail, and The Cahuenga Peak Hike, all of which give a spectacular view of the city.

LOVE THE NIGHTLIFE

Hollywood Hotel is one legitimate center for entertainment. One can begin the night with a visit to the hotel's own 1160 Bar, where patrons can enjoy great music, comedy or cabaret, all without a cover charge. You can hit such famed hotspots as The Roxy and Dresden Club where one can dance up a storm. If humor is everything to you, The Comedy Club at Hollywood Hotel is where all up-and-coming comic guys and gals hit the boards.

On the one hand, if concerts and theater appeal more to your personality, the hotel is just a short ride away from theaters like El Capitan, Los Angeles Opera, the Walt Disney Concert Hall and Orpheum Theater, where the latest run of famous plays are on. There's whatever you feel like capping your marvelous night!

LOVE THE NIGHTLIFE

Hollywood Hotel is not just for those looking for night entertainment. Because of its convenient location, the hotel is within a reasonable distance from Universal Studios, Warner Brothers Studios, and Six Flags. Furthermore, Hollywood Hotel goes a step further by not only having packages that put together an unforgettable stay in this stunning hotel but also value tickets that give you one- or two-day admission to parks, and even let you go to the front of the line at the rides.

Your family can get on a tour of the surrounding area, and it's an exciting thing to experience as you never know if you'll run into some celebrities and find out where they live! Also, take note that shopping in the area is not just for mom and dad. There are children's stores near the Grauman's Chinese Theater, and kids can go to American Girl Place in The Grove, too!

Get Away to a Getaway

Whether you've come for a weekend away from the usual hustle and bustle of your life or you have a few hours to spare away from the family, Hollywood Hotel is the place to go. Located within minutes of the famous Bliss Day Spa, you can book your day with them and take a leisurely stroll to their clinic. There are other relaxing spas in the area, which you can arrange with a quick call to the concierge. Well-appointed tennis courts and a fabulous sparkling pool are on the premises as well.

Every area is Instagram-worthy, and you can upload pictures of your fantastic Southern California vacation right away with the help of free WiFi, or have a trusted companion in the blink, the affordable mobile internet access which you can rent at the lobby and is available poolside. Lounge by the pool and take in the California sun and wash your troubles away. Now, that is a getaway.

Great Food and More

As part of your accommodation, you get a scrumptious buffet breakfast. Not only is the spread comprehensive as you can request the hotel's chefs to prepare your meal according to your needs and preferences. While the original dining spot is under renovation, good food is not in shortage in and around the area.

There's Yamameshi, where you can have a taste of the exquisite Japanese cuisine and a spectacular view. There's Musso and Frank's, too, near Sunset Boulevard to get you acquainted with an 80-year-old institution in fine dining in Los Angeles. House of Pies is but a stone's throw away, while Flying Leap Cafe can give you your daily caffeine dose. Plus, get to sit down at Vermont for your elegant dining.

Adding to the grandiosity mentioned above are breathtaking amenities like a gym with the latest Nautilus-brand machines that can keep your heart pumping while you're in this spectacular vacation hotspot. Of course, the rooms! They speak of luxury, and cocoon you by keeping the noise out and the relaxation in—you've got a winner.

It is also interesting to note that the hotel has staff members who speak different languages—English, Spanish, Tagalog, Russian, German, Farsi, and a lot more. That said, guaranteed that each guest can feel at home while they're away. They are warm and friendly as well, and they offer a kind of service that goes out of its way to make you feel comfortable. Now doesn't that sound great? With all that, you'd be right in thinking that the hotel gives you great value for money.

Curious about this paradise? Check out their website at www.hollywoodhotel.net. Go ahead, book that vacation at the heart of Hollywood and find out how Hollywood Hotel is a little piece of heaven here on Earth.
