

Press release 03.02.2019 ROBERT - DANISH FILM AWARDS 2019

The winners of the Danish Film Academy's 2019 ROBERT awards.

The 35th ROBERT awards on Sunday night became a night of guilty pleasure as first-timer Gustav Möller's 'The Guilty' took no less than 7 awards out of the 9 it was nominated for including Best Feature Film, Best Director and Best Original Screenplay as well as for Best Actor

Jakob Cedergren and Best Supporting Actress Jessica Dinnage - even though the latter isn't seen in the film.

The other big winner of the night was the animated 'Checkered Ninja', which took home Best Children & Youth Film as well as Best Adapted Screenplay for standupper turned filmmaker Anders Matthesen who co-directed the film with animator Thorbjørn Christoffersen. Newcomer Katrine Greis-Rosenthal ('A Fortunate Man') was awarded Best Actress while the prolific Fares Fares picked up Best Supporting Actor for 'The Purity of Vengeance'.

A total of 27 feature films were in the running for the coveted ROBERTs, and this year the tv-categories saw even fiercer competition as both Best tv-series and Best short tv-series had twice as many potential nominees. However, DR's 'Ride Upon the Storm II' repeated last year's win and again swept the table winning Best Long TV-Series and Best Actor and Best Actress for Lars Mikkelsen and Ann Eleonora Jørgensen.

Simon Lereng Wilmont's 'Distant Barking of Dogs' was singled out as Best Documentary and 'Three Billboards Outside Ebbing Missouri' won Best English Language Film while Ali Abbasi's 'Border' won Best Non-English Language Film. See Full list of awards below.

All winners were decided by the 2500 academy members.
