

CELEBRATING A DIVERSE YEAR IN DANISH FILM AND TV!

The Danish Film Academy has announced nominations for this year's ROBERT awards. It will be a night of celebration of both the consistent quality and new voices in Danish film and TV, when the Academy hosts the 34th ROBERT awards on Sunday February 4th 2018.

With a total of no less than 30 feature films in the running for the many ROBERT statuettes, it is a testimony of a film-year of quality and many new talents in front of and behind the camera. The nominations are decided by the academy members.

New voices dominate the main film categories, with 'Winter Brothers' from first-timer Hlynur Pálmason scoring 15 nominations alongside Fenar Ahmad's second feature 'Darkland' including for Best Feature Film and Best Director. In those two main categories they are joined by Christian Tafdrup with his second outing 'A Horrible Woman' and Mehdi Avaz' debut 'While We Live', while the animated 'The Incredible Story About a Giant Pear' compete both as Best Film and as Best Children & Youth Film. Other contenders for the latter are Kasper Rune Larsen's debut 'Denmark', Jonas Elmer's 'I Am William', Lotte Svendsen's 'What a Circus' and 'Team Hurricane' from first-timer Annika Berg who's also up as Best Director.

The Danish TV-productions are also honoured at the ROBERT awards, and this year's nominees as Best TV Series are two newcomers 'Ride Upon the Storm' and 'Something's Rockin' as well as three returning contenders 'Norskov 2', 'Rita 4' and 'The Legacy III'.

The Best Documentary will be found among Camilla Magid's 'Land of the Free', Feras Fayyad's 'Last Men in Aleppo', Daniel Borgman's 'Loving Pia', Mette Carla Albrechtsen and Lea Glob's 'Venus' and Christina Rosendahl's 'Violently in Love'.

It is now up to the 2000 members of The Danish Film Academy to vote for the winners in all categories. See the full list of nominations below.

ROBERT AWARDS will be held on Sunday February 4th, 2018 from 5:30pm at the Tivoli Hotel & Congress Center.
