Torah Insights

Completing the counting of the Children of Israel taken in the Sinai Desert, a total of 8,580 Levite men between the ages of 30 and 50 are counted.

The laws of the Sotah and the Nazir are also discussed.

Aaron, the Kohen Gadol and the other Kohanim are instructed how to bless his children.

Every leader of the 12 Tribes brings an offering for the inauguration of the altar.

COVID VIGILANCE

- If you or your child presents with any symptoms DO NOT send your child to school.
- We request that before sending your child back to school, you consult with your doctor.
- We strongly discourage any parties, play dates and social gatherings.

When peace comes, we will perhaps in time be able to forgive the Arabs for killing our sons, but it will be harder for us to forgive them for having forced us to kill their sons.

PLAY AND NURSERY SCHOOLS

A word from our Nursery and Playschool principal

Dear Parents,

It has been a short but busy week. We began our week learning all about Nursery Rhymes. The classes are learning about different Nursery Rhymes and concepts such as opposites, rhyming and sequencing based on each individual song. Nursery rhymes are important for language acquisition and help with speech development. They help children develop auditory skills such as discriminating between sounds and developing the ear for the music of words.

Children have a natural love for song and rhyme. They say that a child who sings is a happy child. Hearing our school filled with so many Nursery Rhymes and songs has filled the air with constant happiness.

Wishing everyone a Shabbat Shalom and peace in Israel.

Regards
Morah Shira

PRIMARY SCHOOL

A word from our Primary School principal

Dear Parents,

It has been a short but busy week at Sandton Sinai Primary School. We returned to school after the majestic Chag of Shavuot, the holiday where we received the royal Torah, a holiday where we crowned ourselves with our recommitment to Hashem and His mitzvot.

However, our return to school was faced with the suspension of extracurricular activities as the Covid 19 cases rise and the possibility of a third wave looms. We find ourselves thrust, yet again, into the dark abyss of the unknown. Uncertainty is all around us, globally and communally. As humans we crave security, to feel safe and have a sense of control over our lives and well-being. We have learned that Covid 19 cannot give us any of this. The heightened stress of living in a pandemic affects everyone in their own individual way.

What the pandemic has demonstrated to us is that uncertainty is a natural, unavoidable part of life. There is very little about our lives that is constant. We know that life can change very quickly and unpredictably. As we continue to navigate the uncharted waters of a pandemic, one can attempt to use the uncertainty to their advantage. "Don't sweat the small stuff", "live every day to its fullest" and "make every minute count", could not be more appropriate for the times we find ourselves in.

And while these sayings are "easier said than done", and it is important to identify the instability that we are feeling, we can focus on trying to remain positive, encouraging towards others and grateful. While it may seem all grey right now, we know that Hashem provides a "silver lining" in everything. We just need to look, and we shall find that there is a "pot of gold at the end of the rainbow".

Stay safe and be well.
Shabbat Shalom
