Portfolio Company CEO

Opportunity

Work with Addition Capital to devise an investment strategy, source potential targets, negotiate and agree a deal and then become the CEO of a growing business that is ready to scale. This is the chance to indulge your passion for entrepreneurship without the risk of a lonely search for a target company. You will benefit from Addition's financial capabilities, our guidance and mentorship and a team-oriented and highly collaborative atmosphere.

This role suits an MBA graduate who has experience in professional services, or within a large organisation running a small division. Being an Addition CEO is ideal for someone who wants to make decisions, inspire people and work hard to develop a great culture.

Quantum and structuring of compensation will reflect the experience and circumstances of the successful candidate. You will of course have an equity stake in the business that you run to ensure that our incentives are aligned and you can benefit from your hard work and success.

About Addition Capital

Addition Capital invests in UK companies that have the potential to grow and sustain in all business environments. We provide exit options for owners that preserve the legacy and integrity of their businesses, as we plan for long-term ownership and act as a strategic partner to help push companies forward. Addition seeks investment opportunities in a number of industries, particularly technology, education, healthcare and financial services.

Addition Capital was established in 2016 by Jay Verjee and Federico Alvarez-Demalde as part of their family offices. Jay is an entrepreneur with 15 years of M&A, financing and operating experience. He is the Chairman of The Rumi Foundation, his family's UK charitable foundation, with an endowment of over £100m. Federico has been an investor for over 10 years with SAC Capital and Oaktree Capital.

Role

- Devising a strategic plan to acquire a company, based on shifting market trends or changing technology.
- Taking the lead, with the support of Addition's principals, to source, execute and finance new investments.
- Becoming the CEO of the acquired business to lead the company to further growth
- Finding and suggesting bolt-on acquisitions.
- Leading teams and creating a great, action-oriented culture.
- Eventually leading the exit and transition of the business to new ownership if the right opportunity arises .
