Principle 1 – Lay solid foundations for management and oversight A listed entity should establish and disclose the respective roles and responsibilities of its board and management and how their performance is monitored and evaluated.
1.1 A listed entity should disclose: (a) the respective roles and responsibilities of its board and management; and (b) those matters expressly reserved to the board and those delegated to management.	Complying	The Board has adopted a charter which establishes the role of the Board and its relationship with management. The Board Charter clearly articulates the division of responsibilities between the Board and management, in order to manage expectations and avoid misunderstandings about their respective roles and accountabilities. The Board reviews the Board Charter regularly, and in doing so will continually review the division of functions between the Board and management to ensure that it continues to be appropriate to the needs of the Group. The primary role of the Board is the protection and enhancement of long term shareholder value. Its responsibilities include the overall strategic direction of the Group, establishing goals for management and monitoring the achievement of these goals. The Board is also responsible for the overall corporate governance of the Company. The Board Charter sets out the role and responsibility of the Chairman and outlines the Board's policy on when and how Directors may seek independent professional advice at the expense of the Company. The functions and responsibilities of the Board and management are consistent with ASX Principle 1. A copy of the Board Charter is posted on the Website. Each Director is given a letter upon his or her appointment which outlines the Director's duties. Similarly, senior executives including the Chief Executive Officer, and the Chief Financial Officer, have a formal job description and letter of appointment describing their term of office, duties, rights and responsibilities, and entitlements on termination.
1.2 A listed entity should: (a) undertake appropriate checks before appointing a person, or putting forward to security holders a candidate for election, as a director; and	Complying	The Board ensures that appropriate checks are undertaken before it appoints a person or puts forward to security holders a new candidate for election, as a director. These checks include enquiries as to the person's character, experience, education, criminal record and bankruptcy history. Where appropriate, external consultants may be engaged to assist in searching for candidates and undertaking relevant checks.

(b) provide security holders with all material information in its possession relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a director.		The Company provides information to shareholders about Directors seeking re-election at general meeting to enable them to make an informed decision on whether or not to re-elect the Director, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ their relevant qualifications and experience and the skills they bring to the Board; ▪ details of any other listed directorships held by the Director in the preceding 3 years; ▪ the term of office already served by the Director; ▪ whether the Director is considered to be independent; and ▪ a recommendation by the Board in respect of the re-election of the Director. The Company will, in the case of a candidate standing for election as a director for the first time: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ provide information to shareholders about the candidate to enable them to make an informed decision on whether or not to elect the candidate, including material adverse information revealed by any checks the Board has performed on the candidate; ▪ details of any interest, position, association or relationship that might influence, or reasonably be perceived to influence, in a material respect the candidate's capacity to exercise independent judgement on board matters or to act in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders generally; ▪ the Board's view on whether the candidate will be considered to be an independent Director; and ▪ a recommendation by the Board in respect of the election of the candidate.
1.3 A listed entity should have a written agreement with each director and senior executive setting out the terms of their appointment.	Complying	Each Director is given a letter upon his or her appointment which outlines the Director's duties, obligations, remuneration, expected time commitments and notification of the Company's policies. Similarly, senior executives including the CEO and CFO, have a formal job description and services agreement describing their term of office, duties, rights and responsibilities, and entitlements on termination. The Company will disclose the material terms of any employment, service or consultancy agreement it enters into with its CEO (or equivalent).
1.4 The company secretary of a listed entity should be accountable directly to the board, through the chair, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the board.	Complying	The Company Secretary is responsible for co-ordination of all Board business, including agendas, board papers, minutes, communication with regulatory bodies, ASX and all statutory and other filings. The appointment and removal of the Company Secretary is a matter for decision by the Board as a whole. The Company Secretary is accountable to the Board, through the Chair, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the Board.
1.5 A listed entity should: (a) have a diversity policy which includes requirements for the board or a relevant committee of the board to set measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity and to assess annually	Complying	The Company has adopted a Diversity Policy which can be viewed on its website. The Diversity Policy has the commitment of the Directors and Senior Management to promote the specific objective of diversity and seeks to ensure, to the extent that is practicable and appropriate, that the Company's director appointment and employee

both the objectives and the entity's progress in achieving them; (b) disclose that policy or a summary of it; and (c) disclose as at the end of each reporting period the measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity set by the board or a relevant committee of the board in accordance with the entity's diversity policy and its progress towards achieving them, and either: (1) the respective proportions of men and women on the board, in senior executive positions and across the whole organisation (including how the entity has defined "senior executive" for these purposes); or (2) if the entity is a "relevant employer" under the Workplace Gender Equality Act, the entity's most recent "Gender Equality Indicators", as defined in and published under that Act.		recruitment processes are undertaken with reference to the objectives of the Diversity Policy. The objectives of the Company's Diversity Policy are centred on a wide range of diversity criteria including gender, age, ethnicity and cultural background. The Policy also includes requirements for the Board to establish measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity for the Board to assess annually both the objectives and progress in achieving them. The Company is committed to the principles of employing people with a broad range of experiences, skills and views. All executives, managers and employees are responsible for promoting workforce diversity. Whilst the Company has not set formal measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity, the Company is nonetheless committed to recruiting employees from a diverse pool of qualified candidates. As at 30 June 2020, the Company employed a total of 218 employees; of these, 40 are female, and of these 4 hold senior management roles. There is currently one female director on the Company's Board. Out of 218 employees worldwide, only 2 of these employees are located within Australia as such the Company is not a "relevant employer" under the Workplace Gender Equality Act.
1.6 A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a process for periodically evaluating the performance of the board, its committees and individual directors; and (b) disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether a performance evaluation was undertaken in the reporting period in accordance with that process.	Complying	The Directors undertake an annual process to review the performance and effectiveness of the Board and individual directors. The Company Secretary oversees this process. The review process is undertaken via a confidential questionnaire process and the Chairman leads a discussion of the questionnaire results with the Board as a whole, and provides feedback to individual Directors as necessary. During the previous 12 months a performance evaluation was undertaken. The company completed a performance evaluation in August 2020.
1.7 A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a process for periodically evaluating the performance of its senior executives; and (b) disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether a performance evaluation was undertaken in the reporting period in accordance with that process.	Complying	The Board, together with the Company's Chief Executive Officer, evaluates the performance of the Group's senior executives annually. The Board also reviews the Chief Executive Officer's performance annually. A performance evaluation for the Group's senior executives and the Chief Executive Officer has taken place in the reporting period.

Principle 2 – Structure the Board to add value A listed entity should have a board of an appropriate size, composition, skills and commitment to enable it to discharge its duties effectively.
2.1 The board of a listed entity should: (a) have a nomination committee which: (1) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and (2) is chaired by an independent director, and disclose: (3) the charter of the committee; (4) the members of the committee; and (5) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) if it does not have a nomination committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs to address board succession issues and to ensure that the board has the appropriate balance of skills, knowledge, experience, independence and diversity to enable it to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively.	Complying	On 11 July 2019, the Board decided the Nomination Committee function would be undertaken by the Board. The Board considers that, given the current size and scope of the Company's operations, no efficiencies or other benefits would be gained by establishing a separate nomination committee The Board will regularly review the composition and performance of the Board and its committees and ensure that adequate succession plans are in place (including for the recruitment and appointment of Directors and senior management).
2.2 A listed entity should have and disclose a board skills matrix setting out the mix of skills and diversity that the board currently has or is looking to achieve in its membership.	Complying	The skills matrix is reviewed regularly by the Board to ensure that ongoing needs in relation to supervising the Company and its operations are being met, and to take into account any changes in the Company's circumstances and strategic priorities. The objectives of the skills matrix adopted by the Board are to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Identify the skills, knowledge, experience and capabilities that are considered to be desired of the Board as a whole, in order for the Board to fulfil its role and in light of Company's strategic direction; ▪ Ascertain the current skills, knowledge, experience and capabilities of the Board, and provide the incumbent Directors with an opportunity to reflect upon and discuss the current composition of the Board; and ▪ Identify any gaps in skills or competencies that can be addressed in future director appointments. The Board considers that it currently has an appropriate mix of skills and that it comprises of directors who collectively have the skills, knowledge and experience to effectively govern and direct the organisation. The Board has assessed each Director's skill level against the following key skills set out in the matrix which the Board considered to be desired of the Board:
