21 DAY DEVOTIONAL

READ

DAY
07

Jeremiah 29:11-13 “For I know the plans I have for you,” declares the Lord, “plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future. <sup>12</sup> Then you will call on me and come and pray to me, and I will listen to you. <sup>13</sup> You will seek me and find me when you seek me with all your heart.” (NIV)

REFLECT

A brand new year usually comes with all kinds of plans, resolutions and goals. Many of us try to map out the next year and prepare ourselves to make long-lasting changes. While planning and goal setting is great, it is important that we seek God as we approach our planning. If last year has taught us anything, we should know that we can make all of the plans we want, but in an instant, it can all change. If we desperately hold onto our plans, we can easily be disappointed. Instead, we should desperately hold onto God, recognizing that He already has plans for us that will not fail. In addition, we can trust God’s plans because we already know that his plans are to prosper us and not to harm us, plans to give us hope and a future. Many times, we don’t even realize that the plans we are holding onto are so much smaller than the plans God has for us!

RESPOND

How can you submit yourself to God’s plan for your life?
