COMMUNITY, ACTION AND SERVICE | CAS

Being a mandatory component of the IB Programme, Creativity, Action and Service, commonly referred to as CAS, enables students to apply their classroom learning through engaging in activities. GIIS students are prepared to undertake CAS activities in IB Diploma right from Class 1, as the school's teaching philosophy encourages balancing academics with extra-curricular activities. GIIS students find it easier to complete their CAS initiatives, since they participate in sports, community engagement, and performing arts from a young age.

The school's curriculum design across all levels helps build a strong foundation for CAS. The IB Diploma being an academically demanding curriculum, CAS serves as a good outlet for students as it gives them an opportunity to engage in learning through activities. Even though CAS is non-graded component, students are required to clock a minimum of 150 hours of CAS activities during the two-year curriculum duration.

HIGH SCHOOL PROGRAMME

Education involves not only acquiring knowledge, but also building up skills and attitudes that will shape the student's all-round personality. Keeping this in mind, GIIS opens doors of opportunities to its students. Numerous Co-Curricular Activities (CCA) and Extra-Curricular Activities (ECA) are offered and students are required to pick one or more interest groups to join.

Students can choose from Performing Arts, Fine Arts, Language programmes and Science club for CCA. For ECA, students have the opportunity to be trained in Cricket, Soccer, Tennis, Basketball, Chess, Karate, Aerobics & Dance, Taekwondo, Athletics, Badminton and Swimming.

GIIS students are associated with following organisations:

- Sri Narayana Mission - Home for elderly and orphans
- Singapore Association for Visually Handicapped
- Singapore Indian Development Association - An association which works to uplift the Singapore Indian Community
- International volunteering in Indonesia, Vietnam and Cambodia
- Cancer Society of Singapore
- Red Cross
