Children's Science Center Welcomes Bobbie Kilberg as New Board Member

FAIRFAX, VA, February 4, 2021 —The Children's Science Center is pleased to announce the appointment of Bobbie Kilberg as a member of its board of directors.

Bobbie Kilberg is the President & CEO Emeritus & Strategic Advisor of the Northern Virginia Technology Council (NVTC) and led the organization for over 22 years to become one of the largest technology councils in the nation. Prior to this position, Bobbie served as Associate Counsel to President Ford and as Deputy Assistant to President George H.W. Bush. In addition, she has been Vice President for Academic Affairs at Mount Vernon College, and Director of the Aspen Institute's Project of the Future of Private Philanthropy. Bobbie has held prominent positions with multiple Virginia gubernatorial administrations as well as Senator Warner's Cybersecurity Task Force.

Bobbie also currently serves on the Board of Directors of Appian, the American Action Forum, and the NVTC Foundation, is a trustee of the George and Barbara Bush Foundation, and is on the honorary board of Easter Seals DC/MD/VA. Her past board service includes United Bank, Global Food Fund, Wolf Trap Foundation for the Performing Arts, the Potomac School, U.S. Holocaust Memorial Council, and more. She has won numerous awards for her public and private service, including the 2019 Washington Business Journal's Lifetime Achievement Award, the 2004 Lifetime Achievement Award from Women in Technology, induction as a Laureate into the Washington Business Hall of Fame in 2013, and many more.

"I am thrilled to welcome Bobbie as a board member," said Children's Science Center Board Chair Jill Corso McNabb. "Bobbie's leadership and extensive connections in the technology sector in our region will be an invaluable asset toward our vision to build a world-class science center for Northern Virginia. We are grateful for her incredible support and excited to benefit from her expertise as a part of our Board of Directors."

Bobbie is a graduate of Yale Law School, Columbia University, and Vassar College and in 2013 was awarded an honorary associates degree from Northern Virginia Community College. She resides in McLean, VA with her husband Bill Kilberg. They have five children and twelve grandchildren.

About the Children's Science Center:

The Children's Science Center's mission is to instill a love of learning science, technology, engineering, and mathematics (STEM) by providing unique opportunities to explore, and create. The Children's Science Center Lab is located at Fair Oaks Mall and is Northern Virginia's first interactive museum where children, families and school groups can explore STEM concepts through fun, engaging hands-on exhibits, activities and programs. In addition to the Lab and community programs, the Center is working to fulfill the vision of a full-scale, world-class interactive science center to be located in Dulles, VA. The Children's Science Center is a 501 (c)(3) non-profit organization. Learn more at www.childsci.org.
