

A Lovely Postcard from a 15 year Old Boy Called Thomas

We received a lovely postcard from a 15 year old boy called Thomas from Cavan. He decided for lent this year to send postcards to our Residents to add some positivity during these tough times. We would like to thank Thomas for his thoughtful gesture which we were all very moved by - the future is bright with boys like Thomas around!!

International Women's Day

We celebrated International Women's Day in College View Nursing Home, paying tribute to all the amazing women who have taught us, raised us, cared for us and inspired us.

A Busy Week in College View

We had a busy week celebrating Jim's birthday, as well as our usual weekly activities such as nail and hand treatments; our Tuesday bingo sessions, and lots of arts & crafts in preparation for St Patrick's Day.

Spring has Sprung at College View

Our amazing gardener at College View Nursing Home Sophie Smyth and our maintenance staff have prepared beautiful planter boxes giving us a colourful view while on our walks and enjoying time in nature. Spring has sprung here at College View!

Tasty Sweet Treats

We are so lucky to have dedicated chefs in College View Nursing Home who are always spoiling us with treats like these fabulous 'strawberry mousses'.

Activities in College View

We have great fun here in College View Nursing Home participating in activities such as bingo, chair aerobics and yoga. Bingo is always a firm favourite amongst the people that live here - a very competitive affair!!

Jim's Birthday Celebrations

We had another birthday to celebrate this month in College View Nursing Home – this time it was Jim's birthday. We had a sing song after the cutting of the cake and formal photos, and then we had a card game of 25 - Jim's favourite card game.

Mother's Day Celebrations

We had a lovely day in College View Nursing Home on Mother's Day - lots of phone calls with family, as well as a scrumptious dinner made by our fabulous Chef and Kitchen team. And now we have all these beautiful flowers to enjoy for the next few weeks!!

St Patrick's Celebrations

'Ceol agus craic' was the order of the day in College View Nursing Home on St Patrick's Day. We had a few 'Sláinte toasts' and a music session to celebrate. Our residents had great fun trying their hand at bodhran playing. Lots of singing and dancing - a wonderful St Patrick's Day to remember!!

Easter Creations

We had great fun this week in the run up to Easter. As part of our arts & crafts activities programme we got started on some Easter creations, painting some bunnies. We all also learned the new skill of weaving. Our Residents just love being creative and trying new things!!

A Wonderful Week of Birthday Celebrations

We had a wonderful week of birthday celebrations here in College View Nursing Home. Mary and Elizabeth both celebrated turning 90 years young - and enjoyed lots of zoom calls with their family and friends. Teresa and Kitty also celebrated their birthdays, so it was a fun filled week all round with lots of cakes and sing songs to celebrate the occasions.
