Green Fingers

It was great to get outside to enjoy the sunshine and review the work on the planters - we have lots of experts with green fingers here in College View as many of our Residents were keen gardeners before coming to live here so they are delighted to continue this passion.

Pamper Day

No beauticians or hairdressers open! That is no problem here in College View Nursing Home - this week we had a pamper and for our ladies; some enjoyed having a manicure and others went for the 'Wash & Blow Dry' - great chats and laughter during the pamper sessions. Our men were not forgotten either - they enjoyed the barber day - getting into shape too.
