

Weekend Treats

Our Residents in College View just love to bake - lots of measuring, mixing, stirring and discussions on ingredients as our industrious Residents got stuck into baking brown bread and chocolate biscuit cake. All sorted for weekend treats here in College View.

International Nurses Day

International Nurses Day is celebrated around the world every May 12th, the anniversary of Florence Nightingale's birth. Our Residents made some beautiful 'Thank You Cards' and special 'Thank You Plasters' for our fabulous staff. All the artwork was put on a 'Thank You' wall here in our home.

The Great Irish Bake

For 'The Great Irish Bake' in aid of CHI at CMRF Crumlin, we decorated cakes with cream, jam, marshmallows, coconut and nuts! Let's just say they didn't last long after the pictures were taken!!!

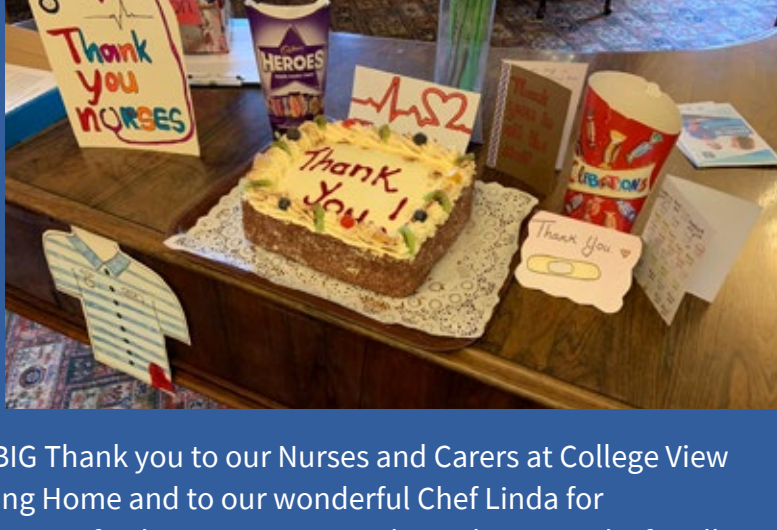

College View Master Bakers

Our Residents here in College View Nursing Home were baking again. We had Master Class on Saturday as we have lots of ladies who would give Mary Berry a run for her money!! Here are some of our 'bakers' at work, showcasing their masterpieces!!

Thank You to our Wonderful Staff

As a BIG Thank you to our Nurses and Carers at College View Nursing Home and to our wonderful Chef Linda for preparing a fresh cream sponge cake and carrot cake for all the staff. It was delicious!!

Arts Day

For our Arts Day we have been making colourful birdhouses out of lollipop sticks, and we finished them this week. We love Arts and Crafts here in College View Nursing Home and our Residents were very proud of their work.

Fun in the Sun

We finally got some Summer weather over the weekend at College View so we headed out to our lovely gardens for some fun in the sun!!
