

Nancy's Birthday

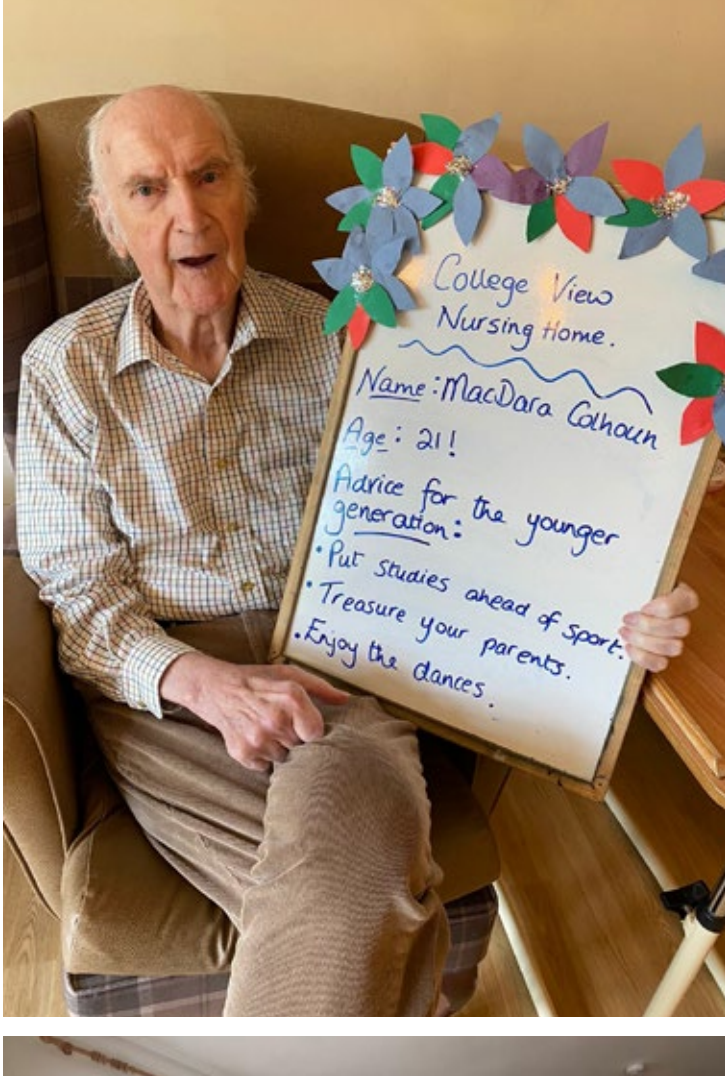

We had a lovely day in College View celebrating the lovely Nancy Cahill's birthday. We won't reveal a ladies age but it was a lovely celebration with cake and presents. Happy Birthday Nancy from all of us here in College View Nursing Home.

Gerry Kelly Show

College View Nursing Home featured in the News this week - Lynn O'Reilly one of our fabulous Activities Coordinators was on the Gerry Kelly Show on LMFM Radio talking about the list of advice and tips our Residents developed to help the younger generation live their lives to the full. Thank you to Gerry Kelly and LMFM for inviting Lynn on to tell about the fun that the Residents had reminiscing and chatting while making the lists of advice.

A Relaxing Sunday

On Sunday our ladies relaxed and as well as having a chat did a spot of flower arranging. We also had some more 'Words of Wisdom' from our Residents who have some fabulous pearls of wisdom for the younger generation from their own life lessons.

Arts Programme

Our Residents in College View Nursing Home are very progressive and like to keep up with current affairs. So as part of the Art Activities Programme this week they painted some beautiful rainbow flags. The artwork will be showcased in our Mini Art Gallery for everybody to enjoy.

College View Bake-Off

We know that this post will have your mouth drooling - our Residents here in College View Nursing Home were baking again. This week it was gorgeous Apple Puff Pastry Squares. There was lots of discussion on technique, recipes and baking times as many of our Residents would have loved baking at home so the skill set is very high. The end result was simply delicious and let's just say they didn't last long!!

Jigsaw Fun

Well done to our Residents Kitty and Macdara who successfully completed a HUGE jigsaw puzzle. They did this as part of the Activities Programme and we think they did a wonderful job!!

Peter's Birthday Celebrations

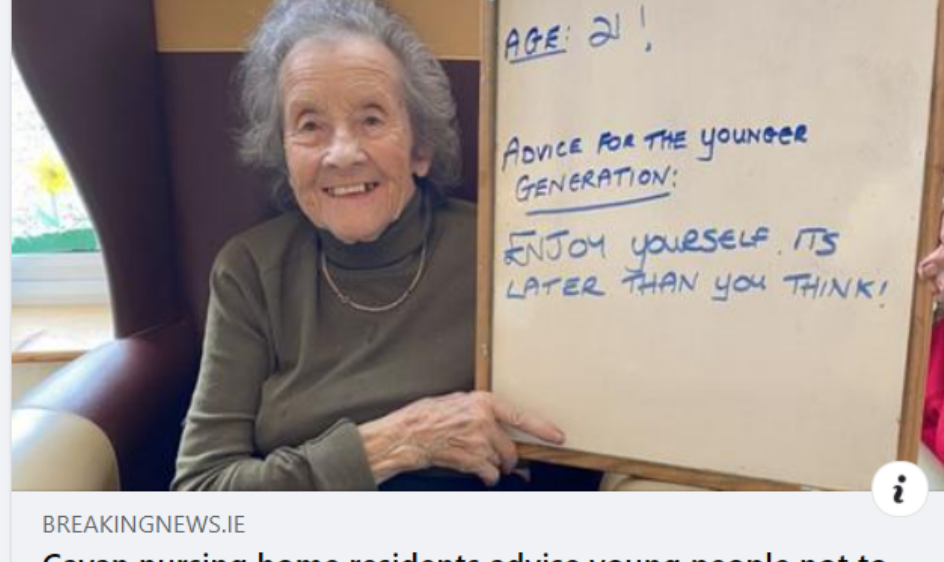

We had a "hoolie" and a half for Peter who celebrated his birthday on Friday. Led by Laura who plays the banjo, Peter enjoyed a sing song with some of his favourite ballads. The Music Session also included other Residents accompanying the banjo music on the bodhran. Happy birthday Peter from all in College View Nursing Home.

Felt Picture Framing

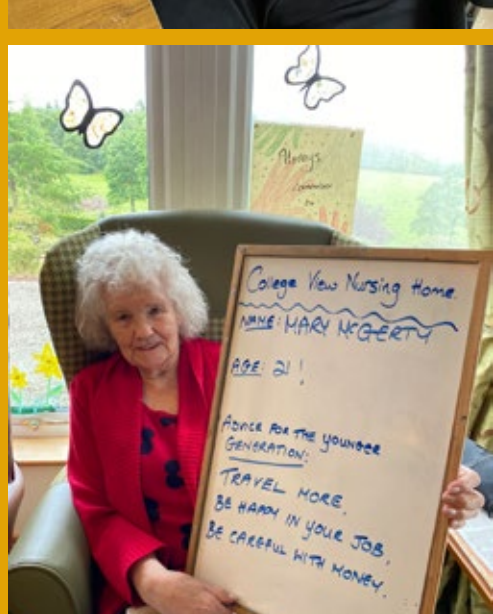

Our Residents were busy getting creative with buttons and decided to try their hand at 'Felt Picture Framing' giving a second life to our button collection. They were all very proud of their Picture Frames when they were finished. We also celebrated Father's Day and had a lovely afternoon to mark the occasion.

We made the news! Breakingnews.ie have reported on our College View Nursing Home Residents advice to the younger generation from their own experience - offering tips and advice on how to live your life to the best. Thank you Breaking News.

Our Hair Salon Back in Action

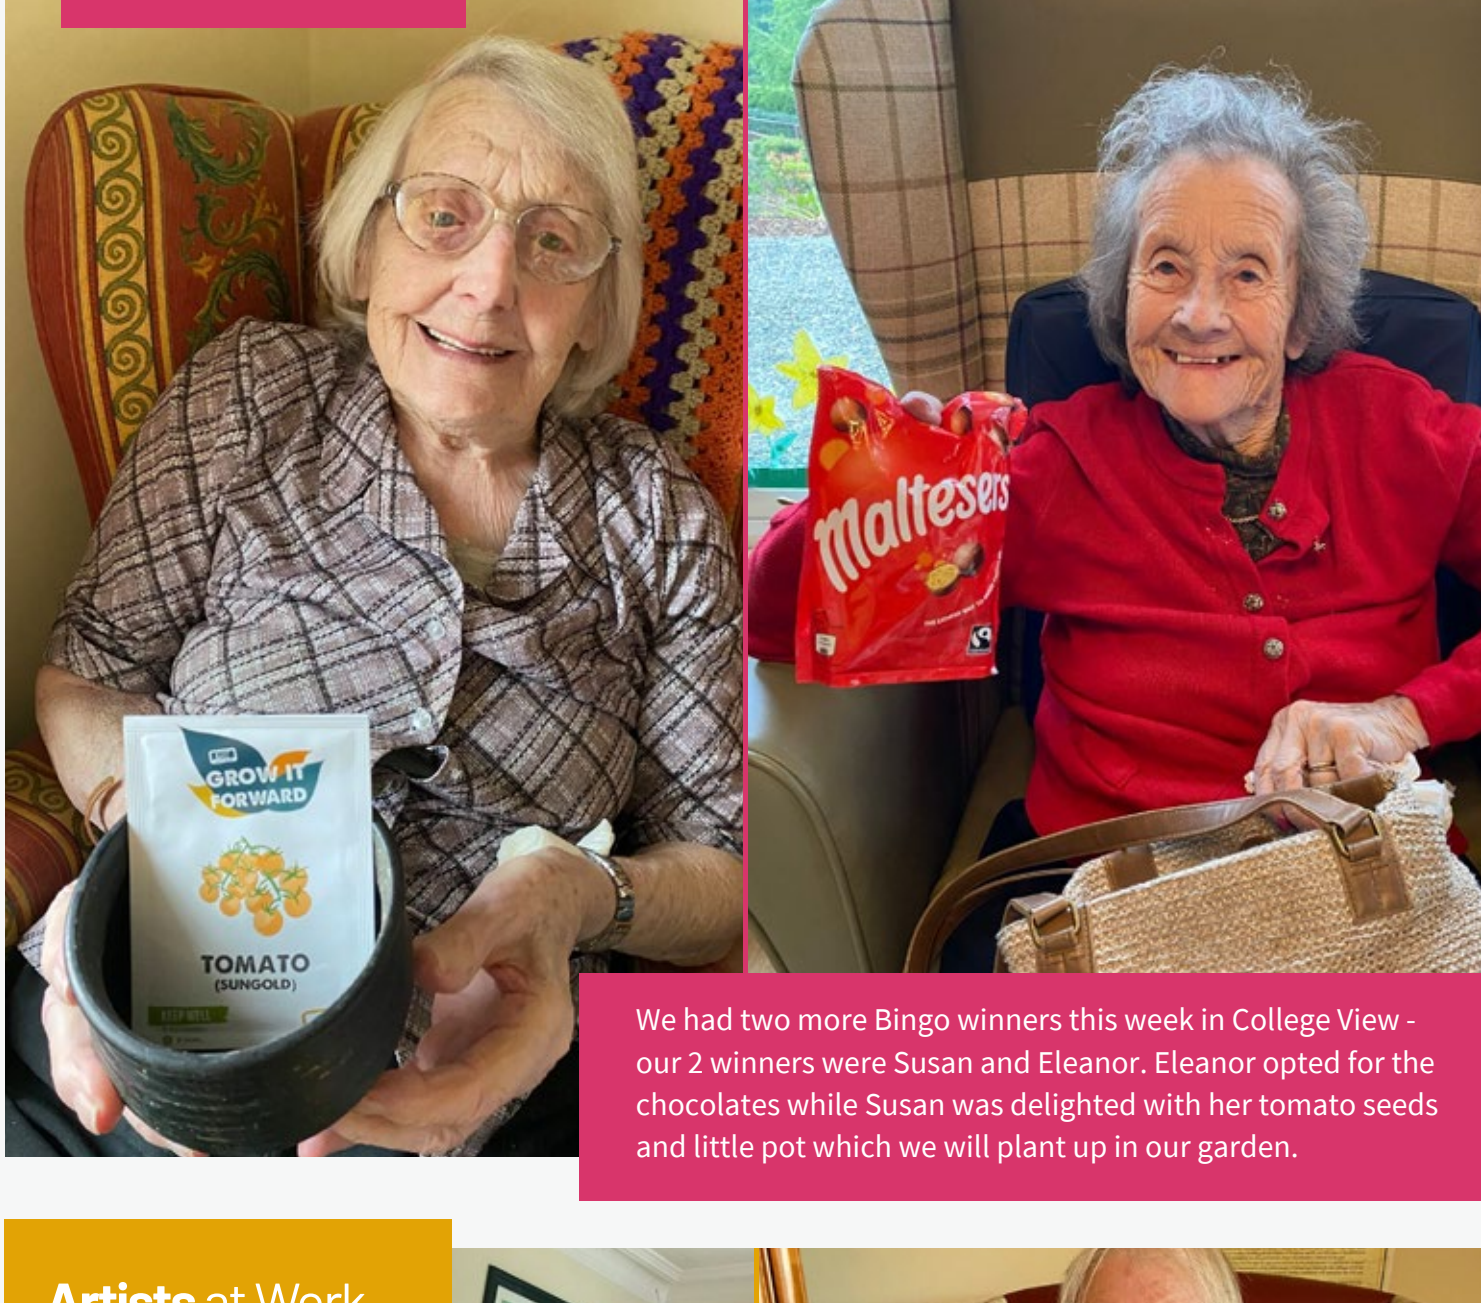

OHOOHHH the excitement here in College View Nursing Home this week. Our Hairdressers are back and flat out beautifying our Residents. Mena was first to get her hair cut, followed by Bridget and Mary. It is so nice for our Residents and indeed our staff to see some 'normal' life returning to the Nursing Home - we missed it.

Bakers Delights

Our Residents here in College View Nursing Home were baking again. We had Master Class on Saturday. After the baking process our Residents really enjoyed decorating the cakes!!! Here are some of our 'bakers' at work and showcasing the end products - our bakers delights!!

Bingo Winners

We had two more Bingo winners this week in College View - our 2 winners were Susan and Eleanor. Eleanor opted for the chocolates while Susan was delighted with her tomato seeds and little pot which we will plant up in our garden.

Artists at Work

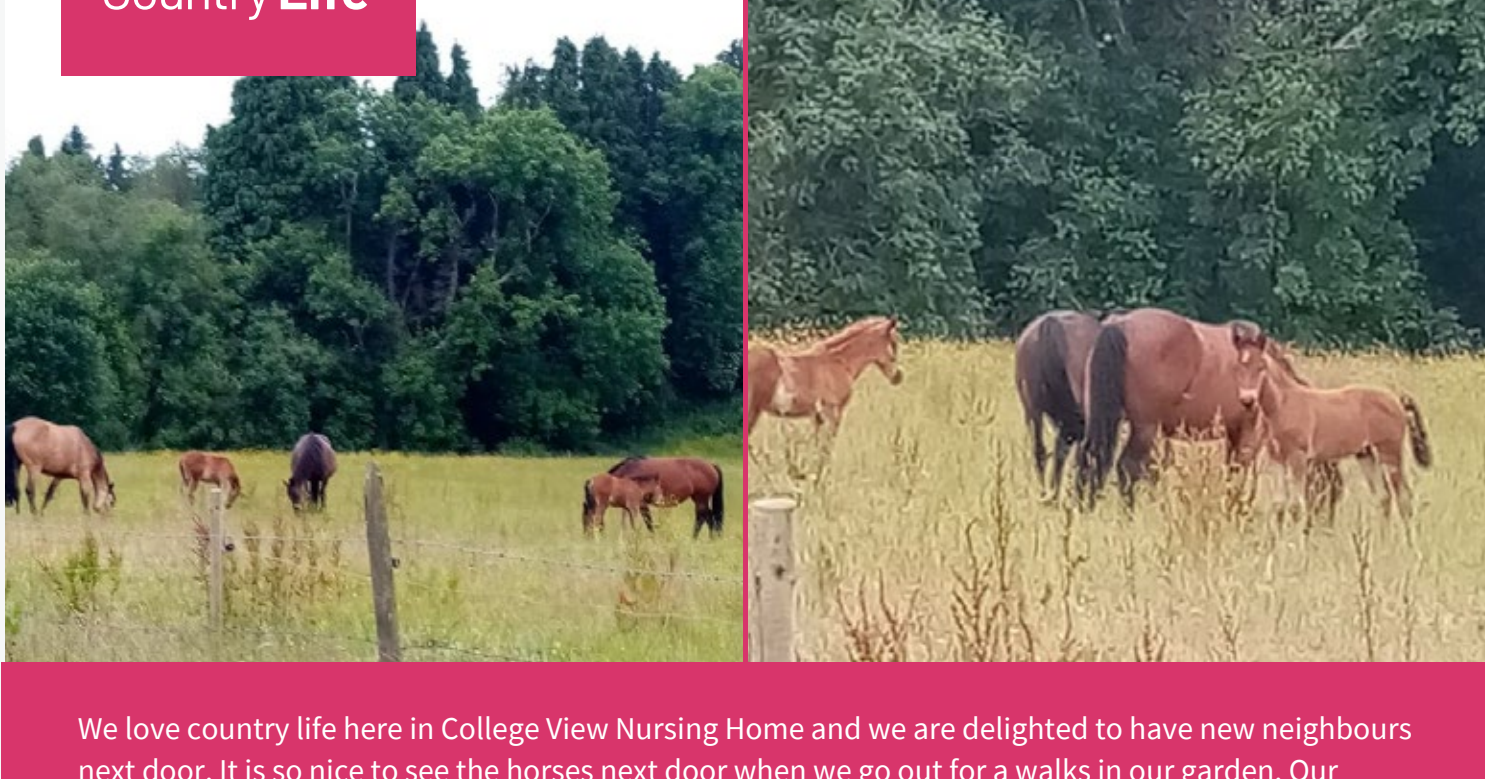

Some of our College View Nursing Home ladies were getting creative this week in Arts & Crafts making lovely flowers. We have very talented Residents here who like to keep very busy.

Fun in the Sun

Lots of 'Fun in the Sun' today in College View Nursing Home. We had our bingo session al fresco to make the most of the lovely weather. Congratulations to winners Martina and Mena who both won some lovely prizes!!

Country Life

We love country life here in College View Nursing Home and we are delighted to have new neighbours next door. It is so nice to see the horses next door when we go out for a walks in our garden. Our Residents are just delighted with the new arrivals.
