STORIES FROM

December

Nora's Birthday Celebrations

We celebrated a very special lady's birthday in Tara Winthrop Private Clinic - Happy birthday to Nora. Lots of celebrating, singing happy birthday by our team and eating the scrumptious birthday cake to mark the joyous occasion!!

Christmas Cheer

Ohhh the Christmas Cheer was all around us here in Tara Winthrop Private Clinic over the festive season. Visitors from Loretto College Swords arrived with bundles of Christmas presents for our Residents. They even came assisted by few strong personnel from Swords Garda Siochána to help carry the gifts! Our Kitchen staff whipped up some freshly baked fabulous treats for our visitors to show them our gratitude.

Festive Arts & Crafts

In the run up to Christmas our Residents were busy working hard with our guest Artist Tracy making lovely cards and decorations.

Little Paws Christmas Visit ❄️❄️❄️

We had Santa's Little Paws visit over Christmas- the wonderful therapy dog Luna. Our residents just love Luna and her visits are eagerly anticipated. Thanks Luna and Ana for bringing so much joy to our Residents.

Santa's Elves

Tara Winthrop's 'little elves' are hard at work wrapping the last of the Christmas gifts for our Residents - just in time for Christmas! Well done to all our wonderful staff who work hard to ensure our Residents are happy, healthy and safe - and most of all - that they have fun.

Christmas Window Carols ❄️❄️❄️

The wonderful students and teachers from Thornleigh Educate Together National School paid a visit to Tara Winthrop Private Clinic to sing carols for our Residents - We called it Christmas window carolling and our Residents enjoyed it very much. Thank you again to the teachers and students at Thornleigh Educate Together.

Bingo Fun

Christmas week or not - BINGO is always on the agenda here in Tara Winthrop Private Clinic. Many of our Residents love Bingo and winning something from the prize table is the 'icing on the cake'. Lots of fun at our Christmas Bingo Session.

A Visit from Santa

There was great excitement amongst our Residents when Santa paid a visit to Tara Winthrop. Everybody received a special Christmas gift and many had a chat with Santa. Thank you to the team in Tara Winthrop for making Christmas 2021 so special for the people who live in our care.

Our programme of activities here in Tara Winthrop Private Clinic had a Christmas theme for the month of December. In these photos our Residents show their skills at making Christmas decorations, baking Christmas fare and painting. Great fun was had by all in the activities programmes with Christmas music playing and many a spontaneous sing-song.

Staff Christmas Party

It's not often we get to share photos of our wonderful and committed Tara Winthrop Private Clinic staff - but we have some here from our Staff Christmas Party. A lovely fun occasion for our valued staff, many of whom were working over the Christmas holidays. They are just fabulous.

Mass Celebrations in Tara Winthrop

In the Christmas programme of events we had a number of mass ceremonies for our Residents in the different units which many were delighted to attend. A big thank you to the lovely clergy who visited and said the masses.

Turning on the Christmas Lights ❄️❄️❄️

We had a lovely event for the official 'Turning on of the Christmas lights' in Tara Winthrop. The ceremony included carol singing, mulled wine & mince pies - it was just beautiful and enjoyed by both Residents and Staff.

Resident's Christmas Party ❄️❄️❄️

Such fun was had by our Residents and Staff at the Resident's Christmas Party in Tara Winthrop Private Clinic. Fun, games, great food and a tipple of choice was the order of the day. Our Residents and staff made some more lovely new memories to cherish.
