

May & June

Creative Talents

Our fabulously talented Resident Brian has been busy working on another art project and our Healthcare Assistant, Agata, joined him to help him with his work. We think the finished product is just wonderful. Well done Brian.

Artists at Work

Our fabulous Artists in Tara Winthrop Private Clinic were flat out this week working on their latest art creation with our wonderful guest artist Tracy. The finished piece is now in our nursing home for all to enjoy!!

Pamper Day

We love a good old 'pampering day' here in Tara Winthrop Private Clinic and it is not just the ladies that get involved. Paul, Marie, Mary, Nora, Tamara and Anne enjoyed their afternoon of self-care while listening to the Tibetan singing bowl. All the products used were donated from Dream Catcher Beauty Aesthetic Cosmetology salon, which we are very thankful for.

Julia's Birthday Celebrations

We celebrated another birthday here in Tara Winthrop Private Clinic with our wonderful Resident Julie. It was a lovely occasion celebrating with her friends and family, and the cake was simply delicious. Happy birthday Julia from all at Tara Winthrop Private Clinic.

Talented Gardeners

We are very proud of our garden here in Tara Winthrop Private Clinic. Our green-fingered Residents planted seeds some time ago and our greenhouse tomatoes and strawberries are coming on very well. We can't wait to taste them. Well done to all involved.

Monopoly Fun

Indoor Gardening

We love to grow things here in Tara Winthrop Private Clinic. Jennie has been busy watering the seedlings for us this week and checking on their progress. They are looking great and we can't wait to see them flowering in the garden.

Memory Games

This is the fabulous Robert, who likes to put our staff through their paces by playing memory games with them - this is a new Memory Game that Robert is tackling - no bother to him at all!

Tea Party

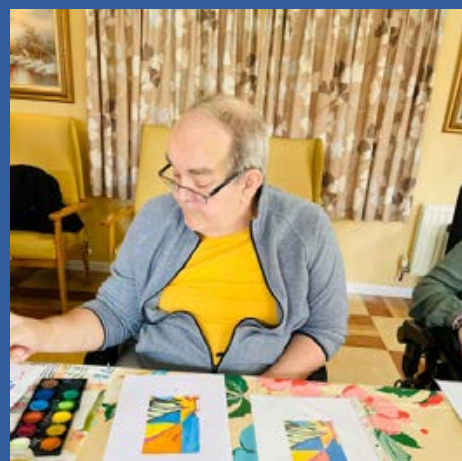

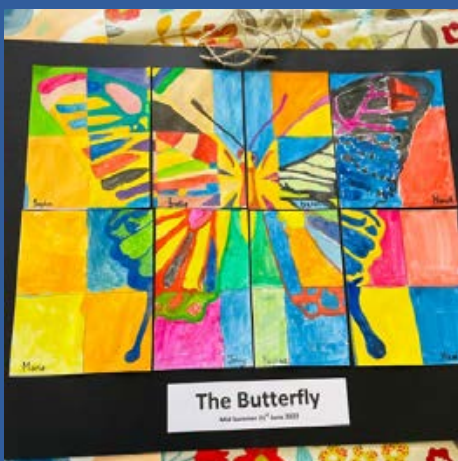

We had a 'tea party' here in Tara Winthrop Private Clinic. Our chefs and kitchen team pulled out all the stops and provided a fabulous fare. It was a wonderful afternoon with gorgeous treats, tea, juices, chats and a bit of a sing song too! Well done to all involved in preparing for the Tea Party!!

Out and About

As the weather was nice, a few of our Residents from Tara Winthrop Private Clinic headed out for some fresh air and decided to go for a coffee.

This week we had a wonderful Art Class with Tracey. We were painting parts of a butterfly which made a collage of a big Butterfly. Meanwhile, Brian was working on his own individual project again as he likes to do that. All artistic endeavours are encouraged in Tara Winthrop.

Irish Wild Flowers

We had a lovely afternoon of Arts & Crafts with our art teacher Tracey in Tara Winthrop Private Clinic this week. Mary, Marie, Nora, Robert and Bogdan enjoyed painting Irish Wildflowers.

Art Exhibition

We have an art exhibition here in Tara Winthrop Private Clinic to celebrate 'Arts in Nursing Homes Day' during the Bealtaine Festival. We were presenting the "Covid Came" book that we have been working on for the past 12 weeks. Two of our residents, Brian and John Paul were also presenting their own individual projects.

Residents Choir

We have a Residents choir here in Tara Winthrop Private Clinic and anyone that likes to sing can join. Pictured are our choir members practicing for their next performance.

Bingo Fun

Bingo in Tara Winthrop is a serious affair – our Residents are very competitive and all are determined to win!! Mary, Tamara, Paul, Anne, Bogdan and Nora had their heads down playing bingo this week. All in the name of fun of course!!

Blooms Day Celebrations

We celebrated Blooms Day 2022 here in Tara Winthrop Private Clinic and our creative residents Marie, Nora, Bogdan and Pauline made some beautiful 'blooms day-themed' greeting cards.

Marie's Birthday Celebrations 🎂

We celebrated the birthday of our wonderful Resident Marie here in Tara Winthrop Private Clinic. It was so nice to celebrate with cake and friends. Happy birthday Marie from all of us here at Tara Winthrop Private Clinic.

Mass at Tara Winthrop

Being able to attend Mass is important for many of our Residents here in Tara Winthrop Private Clinic. As well as all joining in the choir, we have two Residents, Jenny and Pauline, who regularly read the Liturgical Readings & Responsorial Psalms. Well done ladies.
