

Stories from April, May & June

Spring Flowers

To celebrate the Spring Sunshine at Bishopscourt we decided to make our own Spring Flowers in Arts and Crafts. It was a lovely way to spend the afternoon and brought a bit of spring into our lives.

Enjoying the Outdoors

It was a 'thumbs up' from our Residents and Staff in Bishopscourt Residential Care as the sun shone down on us in our beautiful garden. Our knitting group headed for the outdoors to knit in the sun while other residents enjoyed relaxing in the garden.

Resident Bakers

Our Bishopscourt Residents love an afternoon of baking and the smells from the kitchen are divine - they bake cookies, cakes and buns and like to enjoy their treats after with a nice cup of tea.

Bingo Bonanza

Ohhh the excitement for our weekly Bingo in here Bishopscourt Residential Care. A much looked forward to Activity each week. It is made all the better as there are prizes to be won.

Tea Day 2023

We were delighted to report that Bishopscourt Residential Care raised a whopping €312 for The Alzheimer Society of Ireland - part of our Tea Day 2023 fundraiser. We are beyond grateful to everyone who generously donated.

Residents Knitting Group

We have a very active Knitting Group here in Bishops court who get together regularly to knit and chat over a cup of tea. They have successfully taught some of our staff to knit, who have now got the knitting bug!!

Karaoke Queen

Pictured here is Siobhan, one of our Karaoke Queens here in Bishops court Residential Care. We have many Residents here with very fine singing voices!!

Flower Arranging

Our talented Flower Arrangers made sure our Bishops Court Residential Care Home was looking beautiful for Father's Day. Well done on the fabulous flower arrangements.

A visit from Sophie

Our wonderful furry friend Sophie visited our Bishops court Residents who just love to shower her with attention. Sophie is full of fun and loves all the cuddles. She is pictured with Paddy, Catherine and Eileen.

Summer Treats

The sun was shining and life was good here in Bishops court when the Ice Cream Van came to visit us with lots of tasty treats. A big thank you to the management team for the lovely surprise.

Arts and Crafts

Our Arts & Crafts programme is very popular with our artistic Residents who create some beautiful pictures that we display in our home for everybody to enjoy.
