UiPath	UIPNPCVOC00	Core Product	UiPath - Computer Vision - On Cloud	ComputerVision is a new, machine-learning based method used to locate screen elements and operate user interfaces. Because it's a class of "surface automation" tools, it doesn't require or use the underlying properties of applications, so it can operate a large array of previously inaccessible technologies: virtual machines, other operating systems (Linux, MacOS, Android, IOS), Silverlight, Flash, etc. This CLOUD deployment option uses UiPath server, eliminating infrastructure requirements for customers.	$0	€ 0	£0	¥0	₹ 0		Standard

Invoices) - FormDesigner	ABBY FormDesigner is creating machine-readable forms that will be processed using ABBYY FlexiCapture, a forms processing application. Form design is an important stage of form creation, because all the other stages scanning, recognition, verification, and export depend on the correctness of the initial form and its suitability for machine processing. ABBYY FormDesigner allows you to publish your forms (i.e. protect them from accidental change or editing), as well as to save your forms in various image formats before sending them to a printing shop.	$0	€ 0	£0	¥0	₹ 0		Standard
