

Juno Terms of Use

These Terms of Use (“Terms”) are a contract between you and With Juno Ltd, a company registered in England and Wales with a company registration number of 11982301 and with its registered office at 21-27 Lambs Conduit, London, WC1N 3GS, England (“Juno” or “we”).

These Terms govern your access to and use of Juno’s websites, mobile applications and other media and platforms through which Juno makes available its customised benefits programmes and related services to its members (together the “Platform”). These Terms also govern the basis upon which you can enjoy and participate in the various benefits made available to you via the Platform including, but not limited to fitness, recreational, wellness, or other classes, experiences, activities, events, services, recordings, and/or products made available through the Platform (collectively, “Benefits”). Please read these Terms carefully before accessing and using the Platform or enjoying the Benefits. If you do not accept these Terms, do not use the Platform or participate in the Benefits.

1. Terms

a) Acceptance of Terms. By accessing and/or using the Platform and/or participating in the Benefits, or clicking any button to indicate your consent, you accept and agree to be bound by these Terms, just as if you had agreed to these Terms in writing. If you do not agree to these Terms, do not use the Platform or participate in any of the Benefits.

b) Amendment of Terms. Juno may amend these Terms from time to time. We shall serve notice of any amendments to existing users via the email that they provided upon sign up. Unless we provide a delayed effective date, all amendments will be effective upon our posting of such updated Terms on the Platform. Your continued access to or use of the Platform or participation in the Benefits after such posting constitutes your consent to be bound by the Terms, as amended.

c) Additional Terms. In addition to these Terms, the Benefits Juno makes available to you may also be subject to additional terms, conditions guidelines or rules which may be posted, communicated or modified by us or applicable third parties at any time. Your use of and participation in the Benefits is subject to those additional terms and conditions, which are hereby incorporated by reference into these Terms, provided that in the event of any conflict between such additional terms and these Terms, these Terms shall prevail. The Juno Privacy Policy (see: Privacy Notice) is hereby incorporated by reference.

2. Juno Platform

a) Juno Platform. The Juno platform enables you, as a consumer and an authorised member through the company, business, organisation, institution or other person who has set up a customer account on Juno (the “Customer Organisation”), to select and participate in the Benefits that Juno makes available to you in conjunction with its programme partners (the “Programme Partners”).

b) Membership Options. There are a number of ways in which to participate in Juno through your Customer Organisation, such as various subscription plans, promotional plans, and non-subscription purchases. These options consist of different Benefits and features and may be subject to additional and differing conditions, prices, policies and limitations. Juno reserves the right to modify, terminate or otherwise amend its membership options and plans at any time at our absolute discretion. From time to time we may permit non-members to access certain Benefits, content or features for a cost or at no cost. Juno makes no commitment on the quantity, availability, type or frequency at which such Benefits, content and features will be available to non-members and may modify, discontinue, remove or suspend access at any time and for any reason in our sole discretion.

c) Subscription and Payment Plans. To enjoy full access to the Platform and enjoy the Benefits, you or the Customer Organisation who has designated you as an authorised member, need to sign up for a subscription via Juno and/or the Platform. This subscription may either be a recurring subscription (on, for example, a monthly basis) or a subscription on a “pay as you go” basis and, once paid for, entitles you to use the Platform and enjoy the Benefits during the period of time relating to the payment made (a “Subscription Cycle”) and in accordance with the number of credits allotted to you (which we call “Juno Points”). The equivalent cash value of Juno Points may vary from time to time.

d) Use of Juno Points. Depending on the subscription or payment plan pursuant to which you are entitled to use the Platform and participate in Benefits, you will be allotted Juno Points to be used solely to access Benefits during each Subscription Cycle. You can choose how you use your Juno Points across the various Benefits available to you. If your Subscription Cycle automatically renews, you will automatically receive your new allotment of Juno Points for the ensuing renewal period. If you have any questions about how to use your Juno Points, please contact us at help@withjuno.com. Other than as specifically set out in these terms, Juno Points have no cash value or any other value outside of the Platform and are not redeemable for cash. For the avoidance of doubt, Juno Points do not operate or serve as stored value facilities in any way. You may not transfer, trade, gift or otherwise exchange Juno Points other than as permitted under these Terms. It is at Juno's absolute and sole discretion how you may use your Juno Points at any time.

e) Non-Subscription Purchases. Juno may permit you to purchase certain Benefits through the Platform, in addition to your subscription or without having a subscription. You acknowledge and agree that these Terms apply to any such purchase you make, and you will be personally responsible for paying the applicable fees, which may change at any time.

f) Use of Juno. Your Juno account is personal to you and you agree not to create more than one account. You cannot transfer or gift Benefits to third parties or allow third parties to use your Juno account, including other Juno users. You may however gift or transfer Juno Points to other Juno users within your Customer Organisation. You must not use or exploit the Platform and/or Benefits for commercial purposes. To use your Juno membership you must have access to the Internet or other communication networks through which we make our Platform available. Juno continually update and test various aspects of the Platform. We reserve the right to include you in or exclude you from these tests without notice. You understand and agree that Juno may take actions we deem reasonably necessary to prevent fraud and abuse of the Platform.

g) Sign-up. You undertake that the information you provide to Juno when you sign up to the Platform and at all other times will be true, accurate, current, and complete and that you will keep this information accurate and up-to-date at all times. When you sign up, you will be asked to create a password. You are solely responsible for all activity that occurs under your account, including any activity by unauthorised users. You are solely responsible for providing your own access (e.g., computer, mobile device, internet connection, etc.) to the Platform and Benefits. Once you have signed up to the Platform you will be able to select which Benefits that you would like to spend your Juno Points on as well as amend and update your account information.

h) Eligibility Criteria. The availability of all or part of our Platform and/or Benefits may be limited based on demographic, age, or other criteria as we may establish from time to time. You understand and agree we may disallow you from subscribing to Juno or may terminate your subscription at any time based on these criteria. You further understand that the Platform and/or Benefits may not be available in every geographic location and that you must be 18 years of age or older to use this Platform and/or Benefits and/or to purchase a Juno subscription. The Platform is not available to any user previously suspended or removed from the Platform by Juno. By using the Platform, you represent and warrant to Juno that you are at least 18 years old and have not been previously suspended or removed from the Platform. If you choose to access the Platform you are responsible for compliance with all applicable local laws that apply to such use including, without limitation, laws relating to use of the internet, data, email or other electronic messages, or privacy.

3. Benefit Availability

a) The number of Juno Points required in order to redeem Benefits through the Platform may vary at any point due to a variety of factors. Juno is under no obligation to align the Juno Point cost of any Benefit with the recommended retail price of that Benefit or the price at which that Benefit is made available by other parties.

b) Juno gives no guarantees as to the availability of any Benefits listed on the Platform and their take-up. Juno cannot guarantee which Programme Partners will be available through the Platform nor the quantity and variety of Benefits offered through the Platform. Juno makes no guarantees as to the minimum levels of availability of any Benefit. Juno may remove a Programme Partner from the Platform any time without explanation.

c) In the event that you select a Benefit that is not available Juno will refund to you any Juno Points that you have paid in respect of that unavailable Benefit.

d) Juno may, at their discretion, cancel any Benefit after you have purchased it and issue you with a refund.

4. Cancellation.

a) Cancellation of Benefits. As a Juno user you must cancel your Benefits only through the Platform. It is a breach of these Terms if you cancel a Benefit directly with a Programme Partner, including through any online or mobile account you have with a Programme Partner, independent of Juno. If you cancel directly with a Programme Partner, we reserve the right to charge you the full amount that the Programme Partner charges for such Benefit and/or any applicable cancellation fees, and/or to terminate your subscription. You may also lose the Juno Points you used to reserve the Benefit that you subsequently cancelled.

If you fail to cancel a Benefit within the cancellation period specified by that Benefit you will be charged for the Benefit in full, whether or not you use it. Juno shall not be responsible for any additional charges that you may incur as a result of your failure to use or correctly cancel your Benefits, including but not limited to any “no show fees” charged by Programme Partners.

b) Right to stop using the Platform. You can, within the Platform, elect to cease to use it and/or to cease participating in the Benefits. You can also elect to do this by contacting the Customer Organisation through whom you are a member.

c) Additional Programme Partner Fees. In addition to fees we charge, Programme Partners may also charge you fees in respect of any “add-ons” that you select as part of a Benefit. Juno shall have no liability in respect of any of these additional fees and you purchase any “add-ons” at your own cost and risk.

d) Third Party Fees for Using Juno. You are also responsible for all third-party charges and fees associated with connecting to and using the Platform and/or Benefits, including fees such as internet service provider fees, telephone and computer equipment charges, sales tax, postage and any other fees necessary to access the Platform and/or Benefits.

5. Juno Promotions.

a) Trials. From time to time we may offer a trial membership that includes access to the Juno platform during the trial period (a “Trial”). The Benefits, content and features available during your Trial may differ from those available during subsequent Subscription Cycles. Trials will have the duration and price communicated at the time you sign up. Unless otherwise communicated, a Trial begins at the moment of sign up (even if you choose not to use your first Benefit until a later date) and ends at 11:59pm local time on the last day of your Trial (for a one-week trial, this would be the same weekday of following week). If you cancel your Trial, your cancellation will be processed and your Trial period will end immediately, your Juno Points will expire, and your upcoming reservations/orders will be cancelled, unless we communicate otherwise. Each Trial will automatically convert to a regular monthly subscription and price unless cancelled at least 24 hours before the end of the Trial. Customers that cancel and do not convert to a regular subscription may not use any Benefits after the end of the Trial period (even if booking occurred before the end of the applicable Trial period). Trials, discount offers, and promotions (collectively “Offers”) may be redeemed as described in the specifics of the promotion and may be subject to additional or different terms. Unless we expressly communicate otherwise, Offers are not transferable, may not be combined with other offers or redeemed for cash and are void where prohibited. You understand and agree that unless we expressly communicate otherwise, Trials are available only to new users that have never had a Juno account before and there is only one Trial permitted per credit card or payment method and it is a violation of these Terms to sign up for a Offers if you have signed up for an account or Trial in the past or to have more than one account or trial at the same time. Juno reserves the right, in its absolute discretion, to determine your eligibility for an Offer. If in our discretion we believe you are not eligible for a Trial, we reserve the right to prevent you from signing up for a Trial or to terminate your promotional subscription. If we terminate your Offers because you have violated these Terms, you understand that you will not be eligible for a refund.

b) Other Promotions. Juno may, in addition to Trials, offer additional types of offers and promotions which will be subject to additional terms and conditions that Juno may provide from time to time.

6. Juno Cards.

- a) You may convert Juno Points back into their cash value. The cash equivalent to your Juno Points will be paid to Juno's designated card provider (the "Card Provider"). The current Card Provider is Stripe but Juno may change the Card Provider from time to time. In order to access these funds you will need to create an account with the Card Provider and may be required to sign up to their terms and the Card Provider may ask you to take part in certain "know your client" and anti money laundering checks. The Card Provider is a third party service provider and Juno has no responsibility for our involvement in these checks.
- b) Once you have registered with the Card Provider, you will be provided with a VISA card and the availability to make purchases up to the funded account limit (the "Juno Card").
- c) The conversion rate of Juno Points to cash shall be at our complete discretion and may be varied by us at any time without notice to you. This conversion may also be subject to fees from time to time and at our discretion. You shall be responsible for paying these fees as well as any other fees that may arise from your use of the Juno Card including, but not limited to, any exchange rate fees.
- d) The Juno Card may only be used with certain vendors and Juno makes no guarantees about the availability of any vendors. Any purchase made via the Juno Card shall be between the Juno Card holder and the vendor and Juno shall have no liability in respect of this transaction or any of the goods and services provided.
- e) Juno may change the limits and restrictions of the Juno Card without notice at any time.
- f) You shall ensure that your use of the Juno Card does not contravene any applicable laws, in particular in relation to money laundering.
- g) You shall not:
- i) use a Juno Card to top up any other cash account or pay off any form of debt;
 - ii) sell, transfer or permit any other person to use your Juno Card.
- h) Any fines, charges or commitments attached to your Juno Card shall be your sole responsibility and Juno shall have no liability in respect of these.
- i) If your Juno Card is lost, stolen or fraudulently used you must immediately inform us by logging into the Platform and cancelling your Juno Card. Juno do not offer a charge back or anti-fraud service in respect of Juno Cards. If you lose your Juno Card and need it replaced you may be charged an administrative fee relating to the re-issue of your Juno Card.
- j) Juno may end your ability to use a Juno Card immediately if you are found to be in breach of these terms or are using the Juno Card other than for its intended purpose. Juno may view the transaction history of the Juno Card at any time and may, but has no obligation to, take action should suspicious activity be detected. This action may include seeking to recover damages from you as the card holder.

7. Reimbursements

You may, from time to time, submit expense claims in respect of services and products purchased with cash.

If Juno approves this expense claim you will have Juno Points equivalent to the cash value of the expense credited to your account. The conversion rate of cash to Juno Points (and, therefore, the number of Juno Points credited) shall be at Juno's complete discretion and may change at any time. The current rate will be viewable on the Platform. Juno may charge transaction fees in respect of fulfilling this claim.

Juno makes no guarantees as to the exchange rate offered in respect of any such reimbursement. The exchange rates listed on the Platform are subject to change at any time.

Juno is under no obligation to approve any expense claim and does so entirely at its discretion. Juno may, at its discretion, reimburse you with an amount different to the reimbursement you have claimed.

By submitting a receipt or invoice to Juno as part of your reimbursement claim you confirm that such receipt or invoice is genuine and not fraudulent. Should any receipt or invoice submitted by you be found to be fraudulent or illegitimate Juno shall terminate your use of the Juno Card and may seek damages against you.

Juno may change their terms in relation to expenses at any time and may terminate your use and enjoyment of the Juno Card, the Benefits and the Platform immediately if you are found to be claiming expenses in a manner that it outside of the intended purpose of your expense claim.

8. Termination or Modification by Juno

- a) Whilst, of course, Juno wishes to make its Platform available as widely as possible, you agree that Juno must retain the right, in its sole discretion and for any or no reason at any time, with or without notice, to: (i) terminate, cancel, deactivate, disable, delete and/or suspend any account, subscription, any orders placed, your access to or use of the Platform, your membership and/or Benefits (or any part thereof including, but not limited to, your access to any or all Juno Points or Benefits) you may have with Juno; (ii) remove and discard all or any part of your account or any content uploaded by you; and/or (iii) discontinue, disable, suspend, modify or alter any aspect, feature or policy of the Platform including of your subscription.

You agree that Juno will not be liable to you or any third party for any such termination. You acknowledge that your only right with respect to any dissatisfaction with any modification or discontinuation of service made by us is to cancel or terminate your subscription. If Juno deletes your account for these reasons, you may not re-register for or use the Platform and/or Benefits under any other user name, email, payment method or profile. Juno may block your access to the Platform to prevent re-registration.
