Satago

What our customers say

Unyte Energy is an independent company that helps homeowners reduce their bills and carbon footprint. Director, Craig Brown, came to Satago because he needed a solution to help them ease cashflow as they scaled.

“Invoice finance works for us. Satago is on the ball, we get our funds in quickly so we can pay our installers. It’s as easy as that! Satago gives us the confidence that we can grow our business.”

Craig Brown, Unyte Energy

With Satago’s funding in place, Craig can hire more boiler installers and accept extra work. As a result, he feels confident that Unyte Energy will hit £12m in turnover this year.
