

Seaber for charterers

Cloud-based real-time planning, optimization and communication solution for bulk cargo & vessels

Seaber's shipment planning solution brings cargo-related requirements, costs, durations and vessel information into one place resulting in optimised schedules and streamlined communication for cargo deliveries. With the Seaber platform for liquid, dry and break bulk shipping users can manage their entire shipping process as well as plan, optimise and operate even the most complex fleet and cargo flow scenarios.

System overview

Main features

- Planning of shipments and contracts
- Seamless data sharing between all relevant parties
- Accurate time and cost estimates for schedule optimisation
- Reporting and analysis of events and related costs
- T/C fleet optimisation and planning

Benefits of use

- Maximising asset utilisation, reducing ballast voyages and increasing profits
- Proven leading-edge technology that helps save the environment and unlocks the full potential of your team
- Streamlined stakeholder & internal communication
- Independent & secure software with single input & API integration and Intuitive user experience

Seaber.io

About Seaber

Seaber is a Finnish maritime software company dedicated to reducing inefficiencies, errors, costs and the environmental impact of bulk and break bulk shipping. We're cooperating closely with charterer and shipowner companies to drive the digital transformation of the entire shipping industry.