Originality and Intellectual Property Rights:

All participants certify that the ideas and concepts outlined in the submissions to i.d.e.a.WF are their original work. If intellectual property is involved, participants have obtained the legal rights to use (or have identified plans to obtain these rights) and there are no legal impediments to launching or expanding the business.

Waivers and Releases:

Participants agree to waive all claims against i.d.e.a.WF, judges, reviewers, mentors, other sponsors, the Wichita Falls Economic Development Corporation (WFEDC), and/or others involved in the competition for any actions that occur as part of, arise out of, or are in any way related to participation in this competition. Participants understand that no confidentiality of any information is guaranteed, and that protection of highly confidential trade secret information and other intellectual property is the responsibility of the applicant business and its owners. Judges, reviewers, mentors, and others involved with i.d.e.a.WF are neither required nor expected to sign nondisclosure documents.

By signing below, I (we) certify that I (we) have read the i.d.e.a.WF rules and guidelines, and attest that my (our) business is eligible. Further, I (we) confirm that I (we) intend to launch or expand my (our) business if I (we) am (are) selected as a winner of the competition. I (we) further agree to headquarter my (our) in Wichita Falls for at least 3 years. I (we) also agree that IdeaWF may publicly recognize the company as a contest participant and, if I (we) am (are) selected as a finalist, will provide information about the company for public release. As part of the judging process we agree that i.d.e.a.WF and/or the WFEDC may investigate my (our) personal and business credit histories as well as my (our) financial background.

Note: All businesses or owners with a 20% or greater ownership interest in the applicant business must (1) sign below and (2) attach a personal credit history which includes his or her credit score.
