WHAT WE BELIEVE

- We believe in the bible as God's inspired and authoritative Word, our only rule for faith and practice.
- We believe that Jesus is virgin born.
- We believe that Jesus is the Christ, the God-man, fully God and fully man.
- We believe in the Cross of Christ and His blood atonement for the sins of the world, that whosoever believes in Him by faith shall be saved through God's grace.
- We believe in the bodily resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ from the grave, the first fruits of those to come.
- We believe in the Second Coming of Jesus Christ.
- We believe in the presence and the power of the Holy Spirit.
- We believe in the Church, Christ's living body.
- We believe in "believer's baptism" as an act of obedience to Christ and the initiation into the body of Christ.

MISSION STATEMENT

"To do things Jesus' way, by Jesus' teaching, and for Jesus' glory."

"Bear one another's burdens and thus fulfill the law of Christ."

The Holy Spirit

Jesus said, "And I will ask the Father, and He will give you another Helper, that He may be with you forever" (John 14.16). That's true. We can take assurance that "The Comforter" has come, and that He indwells believers (14.26, KJV).

Unfortunately, in many Christian traditions, the Holy Spirit is kind of a stepchild. He gets little attention, and when He does, it's mostly in the form of doctrinal coldness that does not see Him as a Person. The Bible teaches that the Holy Spirit is a Person. "The Holy Spirit said, 'Set apart for Me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them'" (Acts 13.2). An "it" does not say anything.

The Person of the Holy Spirit is the One "who stands beside us," and comforts us, and helps us in our daily lives. But we must ask for His presence (John 16.7; Luke 11.13). And in asking, we must take care to not "grieve" Him, by continuing in sin, nor "quench" Him by denying Him power (Ephes.4.30; 1 Thess. 5.19). The "power" that Jesus promised us comes through the Holy Spirit, and we are obliged to call upon Him to help us (Acts 1.8).

Too often we go it alone, being reluctant to seek help from the very One who was given to the church to bring us through our trials and tribulations. It's to give Him credit and to seek "the spiritual baptism" that Jesus promised us (Act 1.5).
