

MERCY COLLEGE ALUMNI

Alumni – First Year Out

-Thoughts and Messages

Class of: 2017

Left to right :

Alana Barber,
Vikaye Sithole,
Elisa Cocomello,
Jess Speechley

Thankyou for our gifts!

Ladies!

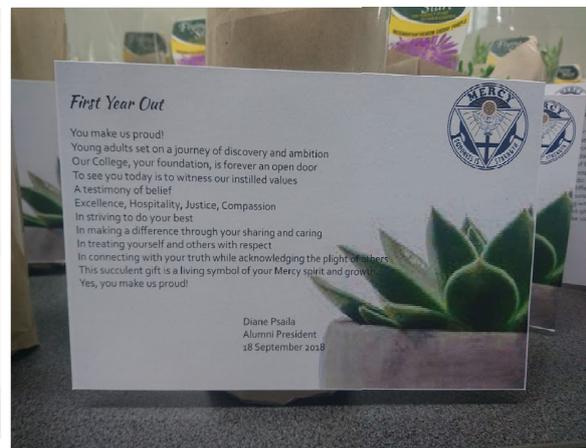

A question for you! Looking back one year, what advice would you give the current students of Mercy College?

Alana Barber :

Enjoy it!
Study but don't over think and stress too much!
Embrace your opportunities; get involved and have fun!
You'll be done before you know it!

Vikaye Sithole :

Do what you are passionate about.
Your future is not outside of yourself!
The clues are found in your strengths and talents!

MERCY COLLEGE ALUMNI

Alumni – First Year Out

-Thoughts and Messages

Elisa Cocomello :

I want to say, enjoy College.
 Don't take it for granted.
 When you leave Mercy, it's hard sometimes to know what to do with yourself.
 Treasure each day because it is one less day and one day closer to leaving a bubble before setting out on your own.

Jess Speechley:

As a past student, the advice that I can give is to just breathe when things get tough.
 Do the best you can do and keep going!
 Try and try again because you're strong enough to handle the world and all that it throws at you!
 Even though the exams and SACS seem like they are piling up, you'll get through it!
 The teachers are always there to help, so just ask!
 Good luck with your future!

Left: Principal Ms Lila McInerney. Right: Alumni President Ms Diane Psaila