ATM / VISA CHECK CARD APPLICATION

CARD ONLY USER

Please note that these terms and conditions are in addition to those found in you debit card agreement. Authorized users have no financial responsibility for your account. You and, any secondary cardholder you've designated, are responsible for all charges made by your authorized user(s). When you add authorized users, you agree to give them access to your account information, but they won't have the same privileges as you, the primary cardholder, including:

- Authorized users can charge purchases and take cash withdrawals on your account up to the account limits.
- Authorized users can't change account status, including activating or closing accounts.
- Authorized users can't add, edit, or remove users (except they may remove themselves).
- Authorized users can't write or sign access checks or request balance transfers
- Authorized users can't request new or replacement debit cards, PINs, or statements.
