

PROGRESS REPORT First Quarter 2010

Big Grizzly Creek

No new activity. Quotes for trail maintenance will be obtained upon direction by the Board of Directors.

Beckwourth Crossing

The irrigation system remains winterized until freezing conditions subside. Quotes for trail maintenance will be obtained upon direction by the Board of Directors.

Conservancy Trails

No new activity. Quotes for trail maintenance will be obtained upon direction by the Board of Directors.

Web Site Completion

The Conservancy web site is operational. SV Designs (Sharon Verhasselt) continues to incorporate new content as it becomes available.

Some sections of the web are still under construction and help is needed to flush out and develop these areas (i.e. "Happenings", "Get Involved", and "Child's Corner"). Help from volunteers who have experience in web site function would be very helpful. We continue to seek this support.

Newsletter

The first Conservancy Newsletter has been drafted for review by the Board. The Newsletter contains links to new content that is loaded on the web site and to external web sites. The theme is This format will be adopted upon approval by the Board of Directors.

Community Outreach Program

Discussions with Rob Wade and Portola school officials will resume in May 2010 to discuss the outreach program for this year and beyond.

Advisory Committee

No activity this quarter.
