Dear Richard:

Enclosed are the filing and client copies of the following returns for the year ended December 31, 2019:

- Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax (Form 990)

The Form 990 has been electronically filed with the Internal Revenue Service on your behalf.

Enclosed is a copy of the Form 990 to be provided to those individuals requesting to review or obtain a copy of the tax return. The public disclosure and inspection requirements mandate that the annual information returns (Form 990) be available for inspection for three years after the later of the due date of the return or the date the return is filed. It is also required that the original Application for Exemption (Form 1023) and the IRS letter that grants the organization its exempt status be available for inspection. Copies of these documents are required to be provided to any individual upon written or in-person request without charge, other than reasonable fees for copying and postage. You may fulfill this requirement by placing these documents on the Internet. Penalties may be imposed for failure to comply with the public inspection requirements.

It is understood that you have provided us with the basic information required for preparation of the return. The tax laws provide that the obligation of a preparer is based only on information of which the preparer has knowledge. Accordingly, the completeness and accuracy of the information you provide us remain the responsibility of your management. You have final and full responsibility for the income tax returns and therefore should review them carefully before signing. You must retain the documentation that supports the filed return. We understand that your staff is responsible for all other tax returns not included here, such as payroll, property, and sales tax returns.

Any tax advice expressed in this communication by Crowe LLP should not be construed as a formal tax opinion unless expressly stated. If you have any questions regarding the enclosed forms or the filing procedures, please reach out to me at (312) 857-7379 or Robin Baby (646) 231-7292.
