

K I C K E R I L L O

As a homebuilding and development company, we know that there is no safer place than your homes during this unprecedented time in our history. Like other businesses around the world, we wanted to provide an update to our customers, friends, and family regarding COVID-19. The health and safety of our employees, customers, and community is our biggest concern.

We continue to monitor this evolving situation, but are taking steps now to implement new policies to protect Kickerillo Companies staff and our customers. For the time being, we have decided to follow current CDC guidelines and local and national government recommendations. We will be limiting in-person meetings and are allowing our staff the option to work remotely from their homes. Our sales offices will be closing for the next two weeks. We feel strongly about promoting social distancing and limiting exposure.

Kickerillo Companies remains committed to our customers in all stages of the home buying process and we are available via a phone call to 713.951.0666, email at info@kickerillo.com, and on our social media pages. In the coming weeks our new website will launch and give us the opportunity to better serve our customers and collaborators in this evolving business landscape.

Thank you to all of those in our city, country, and around the globe who are working tirelessly to get us all through this trying time.

Stay safe and well.
