Message

Romans 8:35-39 (NLT)

Can anything ever separate us from Christ's love? Does it mean he no longer loves us if we have trouble or calamity, or are persecuted, or hungry, or destitute, or in danger, or threatened with death? (As the Scriptures say, "For your sake we are killed every day; we are being slaughtered like sheep.") No, despite all these things, overwhelming victory is ours through Christ, who loved us.

And I am convinced that nothing can ever separate us from God's love. Neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither our fears for today nor our worries about tomorrow—not even the powers of hell can separate us from God's love. No power in the sky above or in the earth below—indeed, nothing in all creation will ever be able to separate us from the love of God that is revealed in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Today's Preacher: Dean Paul Williamson

Readings: Romans 8: 28-39, Revelation 6: 1-8

Prayer for the day

Service: p.476

God of all authority, enable us to hear your call and do what you ask of us. Forgive us for judging others, help us to embrace the outcast and the downtrodden. Transform our lives so that everything we do may proclaim your generous love. Through Jesus Christ our Liberator, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen

Notices...

Welcome to our back-to-church Sunday where we can all socialise again over a delicious morning tea after both services. Thank you to all those who have made this possible.

There are still some Messy church bags available at the office, for you to enjoy with children and friends during the holidays. We look forward to our Next Messy Church Sun 18 Oct (4-6 pm)
Theme: Jesus: the Bread of Life

Membership of HTT

If you have been attending HTT for a while but are not yet an electoral member (someone who can vote on issues impacting the church), now would be a good time to consider this step given all the things we will be working through over the next months. If you are ready to make this commitment, or just discuss, please contact Heather Riddell for further information.
