The Armour of God

Two weeks ago Jenny spoke about the solution to the current state of the world. It is to be found in a life lived in relationship with Jesus and following his way.

Last week Steve spoke about being prepared for that life with Jesus.

Today I believe the Lord wants us to look at the consequences of that relationship. To truly love Him is to keep his commands, receive the Holy Spirit and use the tools he has given us to live life in His way using the full armour of God.

Prayer for the day

Service: p.404

Almighty God, your saints are one with you in the mystical body of Christ; give us grace to follow them in all virtue and holiness until we come to those inexpressible joys which you have prepared for those who truly love you; Through Jesus Christ our Liberator, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Welcome today to the family and friends of Ada Josephine Hayward who will be baptised at the 10am service.

All Souls Intercessions today

We will be remembering our loved ones today at both services.

Communion is back to normal today. Wafers must not be dipped (intincted) in the chalice during communion. If you do not feel comfortable drinking from the chalice you have two options.

- a. Take the wafer only – communion in one kind is deemed to be receiving ‘full communion’ or
- b. Take the chalice and after holding it briefly, acknowledging Christ, hand it back to the administrant

Non-alcoholic communion available on the organ side of church, particularly if managing health issues.
