Message

We have all experienced situations when we get hurt; feel betrayed and feel grieved. Sometimes this situation is brought about by our own doing, sometimes by the actions of others or brought on by circumstances beyond our control.

This inevitably results in us getting hurt and often leads to the question, "Where is God when it hurts?"

As the Lord has been preparing us for a new direction in this church community, some of us may feel lost, left behind, or even grieved by the direction we will take.

"How do we cope with these changes?"

The scripture readings today, I believe, offers us some tools to answer these two questions.

Sermon: Richard Trentham

Collect for the day

Creator God,

you spoke the word and the wind and waves responded.

Speak your word to the storms of doubt and fear that assail our troubled world.

Set within us a love for your creation and for all your people.

May our actions honour and care for this fragile world.

Through Jesus Christ our Liberator,

who is alive and reigns with you,

in the unity of the Holy Spirit,

one God, now and for ever.

Amen

Readings:

Job 38:1-11 , 2 Corinthians 6: 1-13,

Mark 4: 35-41
