Welcome

It's great to have you with us today.

If you would like to find out more about what happens around the place, please stop by the welcome desk after the service.

Brenda and Graham Bradbourne are leaving on a new adventure! We give thanks for their faithful service here.

Message

Morning whanau!

We will be finishing the "Ruth" series today. I have tried to develop some key themes that I hope we will continue to journey on. Grief and loss, welcome and hospitality, finding God in life, covenantalness, to name a few. It is a story I love, and hopefully you have enjoyed it, and whispers the gospel in so many ways.

I have met over this week with priests, liturgists and worship leaders. There was great agreement to continue with another series - which, for lack of a better title, is "A few talks about God", the first being 'why it is harder to believe than it used to be...'. I want us to understand why the world is unravelling and yet faith is so far away from our life together, why we, as Christians, will feel the pressure of a cynical world. We will have fun embracing anew a sense of wonder and love for the God who formed us and knows us by name.

I want to express my gratitude to Simone, Ana and Shelley for the great start to our children's program last week. I also loved being at Summit Youth Sunday night - Wayne and Odette are leading that so well. It is part of our shared mission as a parish to support and help grow this 'edge' of our community - let's pray and encourage!

Next week we have our parish update. I look forward to seeing you there and the next one will be a bit earlier - I have heard it is a little late for some. Grace and peace

Nigel

Collect for the day

Holy God,

you have shown us the bread that never perishes,
you are the bread of life;

may we hunger for that bread above all else and seek to feed others with your life giving love.

For you are alive and reign with the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen

Fond Farewells

We are on the move this Sunday, to live closer to family, in Pukekohe. We give thanks to God for the enduring friendships made amongst the faithful at Holy Trinity, over nearly twenty years. We go, as we came in 2002, with the blessings of our Lord, through His Holy Spirit.

Many thanks Brenda and Graham Bradbourne

Transport needed

- Help needed to get me to a recommended session at the Hot pools for therapy at least once a week. Public transport is tricky. Is there someone who could give me a lift for the price of some petrol (Saving me at least 2 trips.)and a lot of time.I have put a query into Support Net etc but to no joy. Thanks, Jenny Liddell (Greerton) ph: 578 0745
