

2021

Welcome

It's great to have you with us today.

If you would like to find out more about what happens around the place, please stop by the welcome desk after the service.

Today we are blessing the Shoeboxes as they make their way to children for Christmas. Thank you for your generosity.

Hospitality, Healing and Hope

Sermon: Rev'd Nigel Dixon

Holy God, you call us to love you with all our passion, prayer, intelligence and energy;
you call us to love our neighbor, you call us to love ourselves.
Draw us closer to you, that we may reveal your mercy, justice and peace. Through Jesus Christ our Liberator, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

All Saints Services: On 7 Nov, at both 8am and 10am services, and at the Wednesday Service of the 3rd of November, there will be an opportunity to remember loved ones who have died. There will also be a data show of photos of those whom we remember. Any parishioners who have died since 1 Nov last year, and their funeral service was held at our church, will automatically be included in the data show. If you would like to add people to this, email a photo to reception with the name by 2 Nov.

Sunday Evening Service: With limits on numbers for our worship events, we are looking at starting a later afternoon/early evening service on Sunday nights. If you might be interested in naming this your main worship event, please contact Donald on admin@holyltrinitytauranga.com

Small Groups: Would you like to be involved in a small group? Would you be interested in hosting or even leading such a group? With society as it is we need to be sure of our connection together. See the map in the foyer for information on current groups and/or talk to Donald about your options
