

London and New York, April 29, 2021 - Glendower Capital, an independent secondary private equity firm, is pleased to announce the addition of two investment professionals to the Glendower team. Jonathan Au joins the firm as a Principal, and Kelli Keith joins as an Associate, both based in the New York office.

“We are excited to have Jonathan join our investment team and welcome him to the firm,” said Adam Graev, Partner. “Jonathan's years of secondary experience and extensive industry relationships made him a natural addition to our team. We are also thrilled to have Kelli join us as an Associate. Kelli's prior secondary and M&A experience brings considerable resources to our secondary program.”

Jonathan Au joined Glendower as a Principal. Prior to Glendower, Jonathan served as a Vice President with Goldman Sachs AIMS Vintage Strategies (private equity secondaries) and held roles at Perella Weinberg Partners and HSBC. He holds a BA from Brown University and an MBA from Columbia Business School.

Kelli Keith joined Glendower as an Associate. Prior to Glendower, Kelli served as a Senior Associate with Landmark Partners and held roles at Alpinvest Partners (The Carlyle Group) and UBS. She holds a BS from Cornell University.

About Glendower Capital

Glendower Capital is a private equity firm focused on secondary markets globally.
