

Celebration of Life

LeeBeth Young

OCTOBER 3, 1986 - JANUARY 19, 2021

John 16:33

I have told you these things,
so that in me you may have (Perfect) peace + confidence. In the WORLD you have tribulation + TRIALS
+ distress + frustration; BUT be of good cheer (TAKE COURAGE;
BE CONFIDENT, CERTAIN, UNDAUNTED)! For I have overcome the world. (I have deprived it of power to harm you
+ have conquered it for you.)

---

A Journal Entry
by LeeBeth Young

Celebration of Life

LeeBeth Young

---

PIANO HYMNS

Stan Durham

WELCOME & PRAYER

Ben Young

“God of Wonders”

Cliff & Danielle Young

WORDS OF REMEMBRANCE

Derric Bonnot

“Amazing Grace (My Chains Are Gone)”

Derek Borden

GOSPEL PRESENTATION

Mac Richard

“Faithful”

Derric Bonnot

CLOSE & PRAYER

Dr. Ed Young

LeeBeth Young

Dallas, Texas

October 3, 1986 - January 19, 2021

LeeBeth Young, 34, passed away Tuesday, January 19, 2021, in Dallas, Texas, surrounded by the love of her family and Lord. She was born October 3, 1986, in Houston, Texas, to Edwin Barry Young and Lisa Lee Young.

LeeBeth grew up in Dallas, Texas, and graduated high school from Faith Christian School in 2005. She majored in Communication Studies at Baylor University and Dallas Baptist University, graduating in 2009.

LeeBeth was the firstborn of four, dearly loved and cherished by many. She lived a life worthy of celebration and in service to Jesus after committing herself to Christ at a young age. She grew up running through the halls of Fellowship Church and, in later years, she led the team that would design the art that would go on those very walls. She dedicated herself to telling others about Jesus through creative art, inspiring others to commit their lives to Him and His church. She also served in various other leadership positions at Fellowship Church with a willingness to do anything and everything.

LeeBeth was a bright, intelligent, strong, creative, witty, and faithful young woman. She is remembered for her unwavering loyalty, creative confidence, loud laugh, inside jokes, brilliant smile, committed friendship, bold words, willingness to believe in unproven people, her courage to keep fighting, and her faith in the goodness of her great God!

Her friends and family deeply loved her, and she deeply loved the Lord. Because of her relationship with Jesus, she is now healed and whole in His presence. Her beloved grandmother, Jo Beth Young, and grandfather, Richard Mendel Lee, welcomed LeeBeth home.

She is survived by her father and mother, Edwin Barry Young and Lisa Lee Young; grandfather, Homer Edwin Young, and sweet grandmother, Elva Lee; brother and sister-in-law, EJ and Jessica Young; sister and brother-in-law, Landra and Brad Hughes; sister and brother-in-law, Laurie and Sam Kelly; niece, Sterling, and nephews Thunder, Jackson and Dodge; as well as uncles, aunts, cousins, and countless loving friends.

Because Leebeth was so passionate about Fellowship Church, and in lieu of sending flowers, contributions may be made to Fellowship Church.

2450 N Hwy 121 Grapevine, TX 76051

---

We love and celebrate you, LeeBeth.