

Job Title: Communications, Associate Director
Working For: Hanbury Strategy
Location: London, E1
To start: 2020, August/September
Salary: Competitive and dependent on experience

About Hanbury Strategy

Hanbury was formed in September 2016 to provide political insight and strategic communications advice. We help organisations navigate our current time of global change, and manage all aspects of their public affairs and communications to help tell their story and shape public opinion.

Hanbury has grown to over 50 people with offices in London, Brussels and Berlin and has very ambitious plans for 2020 and beyond. Described as 'one of the most exciting start-ups in the space for some years' Hanbury's communications team is fast growing and our experienced campaigners and communications professionals have advised CEOs, major investors, Prime Ministers and Cabinet Ministers across Europe.

The role

Hanbury has grown significantly since its formation three years ago. To help us grow even faster, we are looking to bring on board an enthusiastic addition to the corporate communications team, with at least three years' experience working with or in the media or in an agency. This Associate Director will play a key role in delivering client excellence across a variety of sectors, growing the practice and helping to propel the firm forwards.

Responsibilities will include the following:

- Proactively briefing stories to the media and dealing with reactive media enquiries
- Acting as the primary liaison for a range of corporate clients
- Researching and sourcing information for clients
- Drafting press releases, opinion pieces, briefing notes and background information documents
- Working with our researchers and policy analysts to produce detailed pieces of original research and analysis
- Helping to develop long term media strategies and communications grids, and advising clients on press engagement

- Taking on day to day project management responsibilities, ensuring a high standard of work for client programmes
- Effectively managing teams to deliver against tight deadlines and supporting the development of junior colleagues
- Assisting the firm's Partners in spotting opportunities to develop and grow the business, and contributing ideas and taking part in pitches for new clients

About you

- Excited to be part of a dynamic team, working with clients from a range of industries.
- Not afraid to break new ground and find new ways to solve old problems.
- Dedicated to producing high quality work and going the extra mile.
- An entrepreneurial approach, with the ability to think on your feet.
- Have an interest in politics and how it impacts corporate clients
- Enjoy working with people with a diverse range of backgrounds and opinions.
- Personable, respectful and a team player

How to apply

Please send both your CV and cover letter to info@hanburystrategy.com should you be considered for interview, we will contact you by email within two weeks of receiving your application.

Hanbury Strategy is an equal opportunities employer and welcomes applications from all suitably qualified persons regardless of age, disability, gender or gender reassignment, marital or civil partner status, pregnancy or maternity, race, religion or belief, colour, nationality, ethnic or national origin, sex or sexual orientation. As part of our commitment to equal opportunities, we are open to discussions about alternative working patterns or hours.