

Job Title: EU Public Affairs Executive/Senior Executive

Working For: Hanbury Strategy

Location: London/Brussels

Start Date: ASAP 2021

Salary: Competitive and dependant on experience

About Hanbury Strategy

Hanbury Strategy is a fast-growth strategic advisory firm that provides political analysis and insight to clients from the FTSE 100 through political bodies to fast-growth, disruptive start-ups.

In just four years Hanbury has grown to nearly 70 people with offices in London, Brussels and Berlin with further ambitious plans for 2021 and beyond. Hanbury's fast-expanding EU team, based across all three offices, focuses on delivering analysis and strategic advice on political and regulatory developments in Brussels and Member States for an enviable client portfolio.

The Opportunity

We are looking to grow the team with the recruitment of an Executive or Senior Executive, someone with at least one or two years experience, who would relish the opportunity to support the next stage of our growth. This person would actively help the team deliver EU Public Affairs counsel to clients mainly in the financial services and data/ digital field (with potential opportunity to support across other policy areas including sustainability and health). This would include researching and producing high quality content, working closely with senior members of the EU team.

This is an exciting opportunity to be part of a fast-growth business with bold ambitions. This person will help the team to deliver on its ambitious growth plans, working on projects that will genuinely leave their mark.

- Salary DoE
- Generous bonus scheme - up to three months annual salary depending on performance
- 26-28 days, excluding Bank Holidays, (dependent on office location) plus discretionary additional days off between Christmas and New Year
- Complimentary Employee Assistance Programme
- Access to a full social and cultural calendar and employees wellness programmes
- A rich and diverse people development programme including fortnightly internal training sessions and a full annual programme of external expert trainers and inspirational speakers

The Skills

Experience

- You have had exposure to government, regulators, EU Institutions, or public affairs consultancies, via your internships and an employed position
- You will have demonstrable understanding of the EU institutions and policy making
- You have experience in working in or around EU financial services policies and a keen interest in the intersection between financial services and technology and/ or sustainability and green finance

Client Account Servicing

- You will work across a portfolio of client accounts supporting the team to ensure the efficient running of those accounts
- Work effectively within a dynamic team, delivering impeccable client service and exemplary counsel
- Contribute with increasing confidence to internal and external client meetings
- Handle general account administration effectively, demonstrating great attention to detail with minimum instruction and guidance
- Contribute to client and new business proposals and presentations, providing support to colleagues, including media, policy and client sector research
- You will have a growth mindset, facilitating growth with existing clients and participating in new business development. You will also think laterally about opportunities to introduce different parts of the wider business
- Take the initiative to attend relevant external events and start to build a network and promote Hanbury
- You are skilled in undertaking policy and political analysis and monitoring salient policy developments
