

Job Title: Public Affairs (Policy) Associate Director

Working For: Hanbury Strategy

Location: Remote/London

Start Date: 2021

Salary: Competitive and dependent on experience

Hours: 40 hours per week

Public Affairs Associate Director - Hanbury Strategy [REF: 0004]

About Hanbury Strategy

Described as 'one of the most exciting start-ups in Public Affairs for some years', Hanbury is a fast-growth consultancy with brilliant people and stellar clients. Hanbury is a strategic advisory firm that provides political analysis and insight to help businesses navigate a time of global change; manages all aspects of communications to help firms tell their story; and builds winning campaigns to help shape public opinion.

To support our ambitious plans, this associate director will have strong policy experience and will play a key role in delivering client excellence, growing the practice and the portfolio and helping to propel the firm forwards. The successful candidate will have a passion for politics and shrewd understanding of the UK government landscape.

The Role

Hanbury has grown significantly since its formation more than four years ago. We are looking to bring on board an enthusiastic addition to the Public Affairs team. The ideal candidate is someone with significant policy experience, who can use this to lead a team and provide advice to clients.

You will be a UK public policy and regulation specialist, you may have experience working at a think tank, political party, or in Parliament, and you may have wider experience of the full spectrum of Public Affairs activity. You will be adept at leading on a range of tasks and projects which might include:

- Leading on policy development
- Working with a team of researchers and policy analysts to produce detailed pieces of original research and analysis
- Taking on day to day project management responsibilities, ensuring a high standard of work for client programmes
- Effectively managing teams to deliver against tight deadlines and supporting the development of junior colleagues
- Assisting the firm's Partners in spotting opportunities to develop and grow the business, and contributing ideas and taking part in pitches for new clients.

About You

Hanbury is looking for a driven individual, an analytical thinker who is:

- A UK public policy and regulation specialist
- Passionate about politics with a shrewd understanding of UK government and politics
- A strong writer with proven research skills
- Preferably experienced in financial services policy
- Excited to be part of a dynamic team, working with clients from a range of industries
- Not afraid to break new ground and find new ways to solve old problems
- Dedicated to producing high quality work and going the extra mile
- Entrepreneurial in approach, with the ability to think on your feet
- Keen to work with people with a diverse range of backgrounds and opinions
- Personable, professional and a team player.

Further Information and Benefits

- 28 days' paid leave plus bank holidays, pension plan, discretionary bonus and competitive pay
- Normal working hours are 9am - 6pm
- Complimentary Employee Assistance Programme and Dr Care Anywhere.
- Access to a full social and cultural calendar and employee wellness programmes - we are currently working remotely so this programme is virtual
- A rich and diverse people development programme including fortnightly internal training sessions and a full annual programme of external trainers and inspirational speakers

Application details

Please send both your CV and cover letter with the subject: Public Affairs Associate Director - Hanbury Strategy [REF: 0004] to careers@hanburystrategy.com should you be considered for interview, we will contact you by email within two weeks of receiving your application.

Hanbury Strategy is an equal opportunities employer and welcomes applications from all suitably qualified persons regardless of age, disability, gender or gender reassignment, marital or civil partner status, pregnancy or maternity, race, religion or belief, colour, nationality, ethnic or national origin, sex or sexual orientation. As part of our commitment to equal opportunities, we are open to discussions about alternative working patterns or hours.