

Job Title: EU Public Affairs Senior Executive (Financial Services & Digital)

Working For: Hanbury Strategy

Location: London/Brussels

Start Date: ASAP 2021

Salary: Competitive and dependant on experience

EU Senior Executive (FS & Digital) - Hanbury Strategy [REF: 0013]

About Hanbury Strategy

Hanbury Strategy is a fast-growth strategic advisory firm that provides political analysis and insight to clients from the FTSE 100 through political bodies to fast-growth, disruptive start-ups.

In four years Hanbury has grown to over 70 people with offices in London, Brussels and Berlin with further ambitious plans for 2021 and beyond. Hanbury's fast-expanding EU team, based across all three offices, focuses on delivering analysis and strategic advice on political and regulatory developments in Brussels and Member States for an enviable client portfolio.

The opportunity

We are looking to grow the team with the recruitment of a Senior Executive, someone with at least 2 - 3 years experience, who would relish the opportunity to support the next stage of our growth. This person would actively help the team deliver EU Public Affairs counsel to clients mainly in the financial services and data/digital field (with potential opportunity to support across other policy areas including green finance).

This is an exciting opportunity to be part of a fast-growth business with bold ambitions. This person will help the team to deliver on its ambitious growth plans, working on projects that will genuinely leave their mark.

The skills

Experience

- You have had experience in the EU institutions or supervisors, national governments, trade associations or public affairs consultancies
- You will have demonstrable understanding of the EU institutions and policy making
- You have experience in working in EU financial services policies and ideally knowledge of digital finance and digital policy

Client Account Servicing

- You will work across a portfolio of client accounts supporting the team to ensure the efficient running of those accounts
- You are skilled in undertaking policy and political analysis and monitoring salient policy developments

- Work effectively within a dynamic team, contributing with increasing confidence to internal and external client meetings
- Handle general account management effectively, demonstrating great attention to detail with minimum instruction and guidance
- Contribute to client and new business proposals and presentations, providing support to colleagues, including media, policy and client sector research
- You will have a growth mindset, facilitating growth with existing clients and participating in new business development. You will also think laterally about opportunities to introduce different parts of the wider business
- Take the initiative to attend relevant external events and start to build a network and promote Hanbury

Further details and benefits

- Office based position with working hours of 9.00am-6.00pm.
- 26-28 days' leave per annum (pro-rata), plus bank holidays and discretionary additional days off between Christmas and New Year
- Annual discretionary bonus scheme
- Pension scheme in which Hanbury contributes a proportion of your monthly gross salary
- Complimentary Employee Assistance Programme and Doctor Care Anywhere.
- Membership of Second Home, the coworking office space in which Hanbury is currently based, which offers a range of additional complimentary benefits including cultural and wellness programmes: <https://secondhome.io/spitalfields>.
- Access to a full social and cultural calendar and employee wellness programmes - we are currently working remotely so this programme is virtual
- A rich and diverse people development programme including fortnightly internal training sessions and a full annual programme of external trainers and inspirational speakers
