

Senior QA Developer

Starting Date: April 2021

Weekly Hours: 40

The Role

We are looking for a Senior Quality Assurance Engineer to join our team.

Minimum Qualifications:

- Experienced QA Engineer with at least 4+ years of experience.
- Strong knowledge of testing methodologies, types of testing and testing techniques.
- Practical experience in software quality control.
- Bachelor's degree in engineering, maths, physics, computer science or equivalent education.
- Deep knowledge of testing methodologies.
- Knowledgeable of gRPC, Open API, and REST.
- Knowledgeable of API tools (Postman, Swagger, etc.)
- Clear comprehensive understanding of bug reports, checklists and test cases.

Preferred Qualifications:

- Good understanding of agile methodologies.
- Basic knowledge of SQL/database.
- Strong interpersonal skills with the ability to work as part of a team.
- Familiarity with macOS and Windows.
- Experienced with Linux & Linux Console.
- Practical experience with bash ll shell usage and scripting.

- Hands-on testing skills with the usage of CI/CD (Jenkins, CircleCI).
- Fluent in English (verbally and written).

Responsibilities

- Participating in requirements analysis and review.
- Performing manual testing.
- Managing defects: investigating, reporting and tracking them to resolution.
- Performing application quality control.
- Creating and maintaining the testing documentation: test cases, checklists.

What we offer

- Flexible working hours.
- The opportunity to contribute to innovative projects in a new and exciting industry that has the potential to change our world positively.
- Warm and open corporate culture at a truly international company with many different nationalities.
- An environment that values freedom, autonomy, team spirit and open communication.
- Base salary + commission.
- Office space in the heart of Berlin.
- Soft Drinks and coffee (We know how important caffeine can be).

Sounds good? Simply send us your CV!