Inspiration From New Pathways Dads

Meet Troy Koontz

When Troy was 12 years old, he tried drugs for the first time. It didn't take long for him to be hooked. Troy was an active user for 37 years. During his drug use, he was blessed with two sons. His sons meant the world to him, but he still couldn't quit using drugs. Eventually Troy's sons had children of their own. Troy said, "The worst feeling in the world was when I couldn't be in their lives." Just over five years ago, Troy recognized that a change needed to be made, and he got sober. He has slowly been working his way back into the lives of his children and grandchildren. Troy thanks God for the New Pathways for Good Dads program offered at his treatment center. He was fortunate to meet Dr. Baker and get enrolled in the NPGD. Through NPGD Troy has been able to begin the process of being a grandfather to his grandchildren and restoring his relationship with his sons. He stated, "I am blessed to have them and the Good Dads program on my side. Thank you from the bottom of my heart!"

Congratulations Troy!

Troy, with his dad, Lloyd, and his son, John
