• Post-Employment Services Q&A—How this will impact DVR’s approach and related needed changes o RSA recently issued new guidance around Post-Employment Services. Post-Employment Services not allowed after a case has closed.
  o DVR working to get an Emergency Rule change to the Washington Administrative Code to match this new guidance to avoid audit findings or possibly unallowable costs to the grant.
    ▪ Effective as of 5/11/22 through September and can be extended once or twice.
    ▪ Working on a more permanent rule.
  o Working with field staff to make sure that cases currently receiving Post-Employment Services can transition to a regular VR case.
    ▪ Ongoing messaging, reaching out to all staff as well as individually for staff who have PES case on their caseload.
    ▪ Training, both as it pertains to Waves and potentially as a standalone training
    ▪ We are monitoring the transition of all of the PES cases that were open prior to the rule change.
  o Policy updates, which will include WSRC and CAP review and feedback to PES sections of the manual.

• Performance Trends
  o The number of successful case closures and customers in plan with employment continue at levels at or above pre-Covid.
  o Employment rate averaged 50%, one point above the previous quarter.
  o New applications remain well below the pre-Covid monthly average but rose sharply in March and were up 23% from the prior 6-month average.
  o The number of cases in plan has declined steadily since October and average days to plan increased by 6 days from the previous quarter.

Q&A:
• Executive Order 22-04| Pro-Equity Antiracism
  o Terry Redmon: New DSHS Secretary, Jilma Meneses, is supportive of Executive Order. We are including Equity, Diversity, Access, & Inclusion (EDAI) questions in all job interviews and all job postings so when new hires onboard it is very clear what DVR’s EDAI policies and expectations are. We are modeling it in all kinds of ways.
  o Cassi: This Executive Order is led by the newly created Office of Equity.
    ▪ DVR has representation on the Pro-Equity Anti-Racism (PEAR) team. Representation will include DVR customers.

• How is DVR shifting as employment opportunities are shifting in this post-Covid, employee-driven job market?
  o Workforce board has access to economists who forecast trends in the labor market.
  o DVR will collaborate to stay ahead of these trends and inform DVR field staff o Many positions are in transition
