Public Comment:
- Courtney Williams: Giving a better timeline on the potential rate increase. DDA rate study results. Getting CRPs to have plan signs? Messaging to customers on fiscal reality.
- Kathy Powers: The better analysis and survey is awesome. Questions. As counselors return to office, the flexibility is nice. What are customers saying about that? As a provider, that remote work is not always the most conducive to a robust relationship with customers. I watched a webinar on rapid engagement, and it is very exciting to me. It would help keep DVR relevant in an ever-shifting job market.
  - Ann Martin: In some ways, hybrid, remote work has been great for some, and not as great for others. What parts of the process would be best to be held in-person. It depends on the customer. It comes down to informed choice conversations with each customer and meeting them where they are at in the best way for them. Rapid engagement: is so important to build off the customer’s enthusiasm to work.
- Rebecca Jansson: Training for CRPs was excellent. Thank you all for the instructional videos. “What can Community Rehabilitation Providers do to improve their services?”
